The Greater World Belief and Pledge

I believe in one God who is Love

I accept the Leadership of Jesus the Christ

I believe that God manifests through the illimitable power of Holy Spirit

I believe in the survival of the soul and its individuality after physical death

I believe in Communion with God, with His angelic ministers, and with souls functioning in conditions other than the earth life.

I believe that all forms of life created by God intermingle, are interdependent, and evolve until perfection is attained.

I believe in the perfect justice of the Divine laws governing all life.

I believe that sins committed can only be rectified by the sinner himself or herself, through the redemptive power of Jesus the Christ, by repentance and service to others.

The Pledge

I will at all times endeavour to be guided in my thoughts, words and deeds by the teaching and example of Jesus the Christ.

Right at the beginning of the Bible – in Genesis – we are warned to walk by faith and not by sight. You know already that what you see is not necessarily right or what you hear is not necessarily true.

We also know that when Moses led the Israelites out of Egypt he could have arrived at their destination in about two weeks.... The land that God had chosen for them. However, He and God had a few words and Moses led the people the long way round. God said to him that the people had a lot to learn. Not much different to today really!!!! As usual some learned the lessons quickly and some did not learn them at all..... then there were those in the middle! Sitting on the fence can be a very uncomfortable place to be.

Harvest time is a good time to look at what has been reaped and what has been sown. How much have you grown since the last harvest? How much knowledge have you reaped? How much of that knowledge do you put into action on a daily basis? Jesus taught that ‘whosoever’ can learn about the salvation that is available for all. It is a matter of personal trust in a living Saviour. The actions of belief and witness are complimentary. Those who believe will be proud to confess. Who are the ‘whosoever’? The way of salvation is open to all.

God is seeking reasonable service – a spiritual worship. This consecration involves both body and soul. The body is sacred and as the servant of the soul brings about a readjustment to the realities of heaven and earth. It brings about a recognition of Gods’ Will for mankind. That has never faded or been taken away for anyone who wishes to serve a Loving Father.

Love is the principal in Christian living. It is more than an emotion; not a sentimentality nor a philanthropy. If this love is void of hypocrisy and sincere in its outflowing then it will find activities in various forms: It will loath evil and hunger after good. Because of the actions taken it will influence other souls. There are many ways in which good can be achieved. In the world today there is great need and people need help and encouragement to carry out the work of God – not because they get paid – but because they are able to bring about changes for good in the world – which once again is fast losing its way.

Serving God in any way that we can, wherever we are, whatever we have to do – we have that confidence that God is with us – our loving Father – when everything has been done that could be done then we rest in the peace that passeth all understanding.

Serving God in any way that we can, wherever we are, whatever we have to do – we have that confidence that God is with us – our loving Father – when everything has been done that could be done then we rest in the peace that passeth all understanding.

Paul says to us: - “I beseech you therefore by the mercies of God that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, by means of reasonable service. Do not imitate the way of the world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds that you may discern what is that good and acceptable will of God.”

Everyone has their own gifts to offer in service. No matter where they are each one has the opportunity to express the love of God for His children on a daily basis.

Each one is requested to be kind to one another: Not slothful in business. The world is on our doorstep – so to speak – we see the news every day. The world is in great need of the good that we can do – just by sending out our thoughts and prayers every day. If you sleep by night and work by day – the principal is the same. Daily we can be aware of the deterioration that has taken place. It is easy to criticise when self rules the day. Do you think that there is nothing that you can do? One thought for good – for love – for change for the better that goes out from you into the ethers joins together with all other thoughts of a similar vibration and creates a light brighter than the moon at night. You may not see that light – however, know that you are standing in it – with thousands of other people around the world who are concerned for the welfare of the planet.

God created the world for people. Generation after generation have tried to destroy it. When man thinks that he has more power than God – then you know from the results of their thinking when they are put into action that trouble is brewing.

Mankind has been offered a way of life and a power of thought that goes way beyond their understanding. Until, that is, they begin to realise that there is much more to them than meets the eye.

“Love is the fulfilment of the law”. Love is filled with a multitude of similar words; kindness, thoughtfulness, understanding, tolerance, patience.... All are

If you sleep by night and work by day – the principal is the same. Daily we can be aware of the deterioration that has taken place. It is easy to criticise when self rules the day. Do you think that there is nothing that you can do? One thought for good – for love – for change for the better that goes out from you into the ethers joins together with all other thoughts of a similar vibration and creates a light brighter than the moon at night.

When you know that the power of God is working in the world in spite of all the horrors that are taking place do not be discouraged because throughout all the need your light will be burning brightly. You cannot know now how many souls have benefitted from your prayers or your kindness and thoughtfulness. All will be shown to you when it is your time to go home.

so very different from the lusts of the world. Is the reason the thoughtfulness of others praise or glory or vanity or money?

A child who carries another child to safety in times of war does it for love and not for glory. Many adults have done the same.

When you know that the power of God is working in the world in spite of all the horrors that are taking place do not be discouraged because throughout all the need your light will be burning brightly. You cannot know now how many souls have benefitted from your prayers or your kindness and thoughtfulness. All will be shown to you when it is your time to go home. The reason you were born was to help others to find their way. Jesus said: "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. Everyone who follows Me shall never die – but have eternal life."

Many people believe that when they die their life is over – they are no more. They will find out what you already know – life is everlasting.

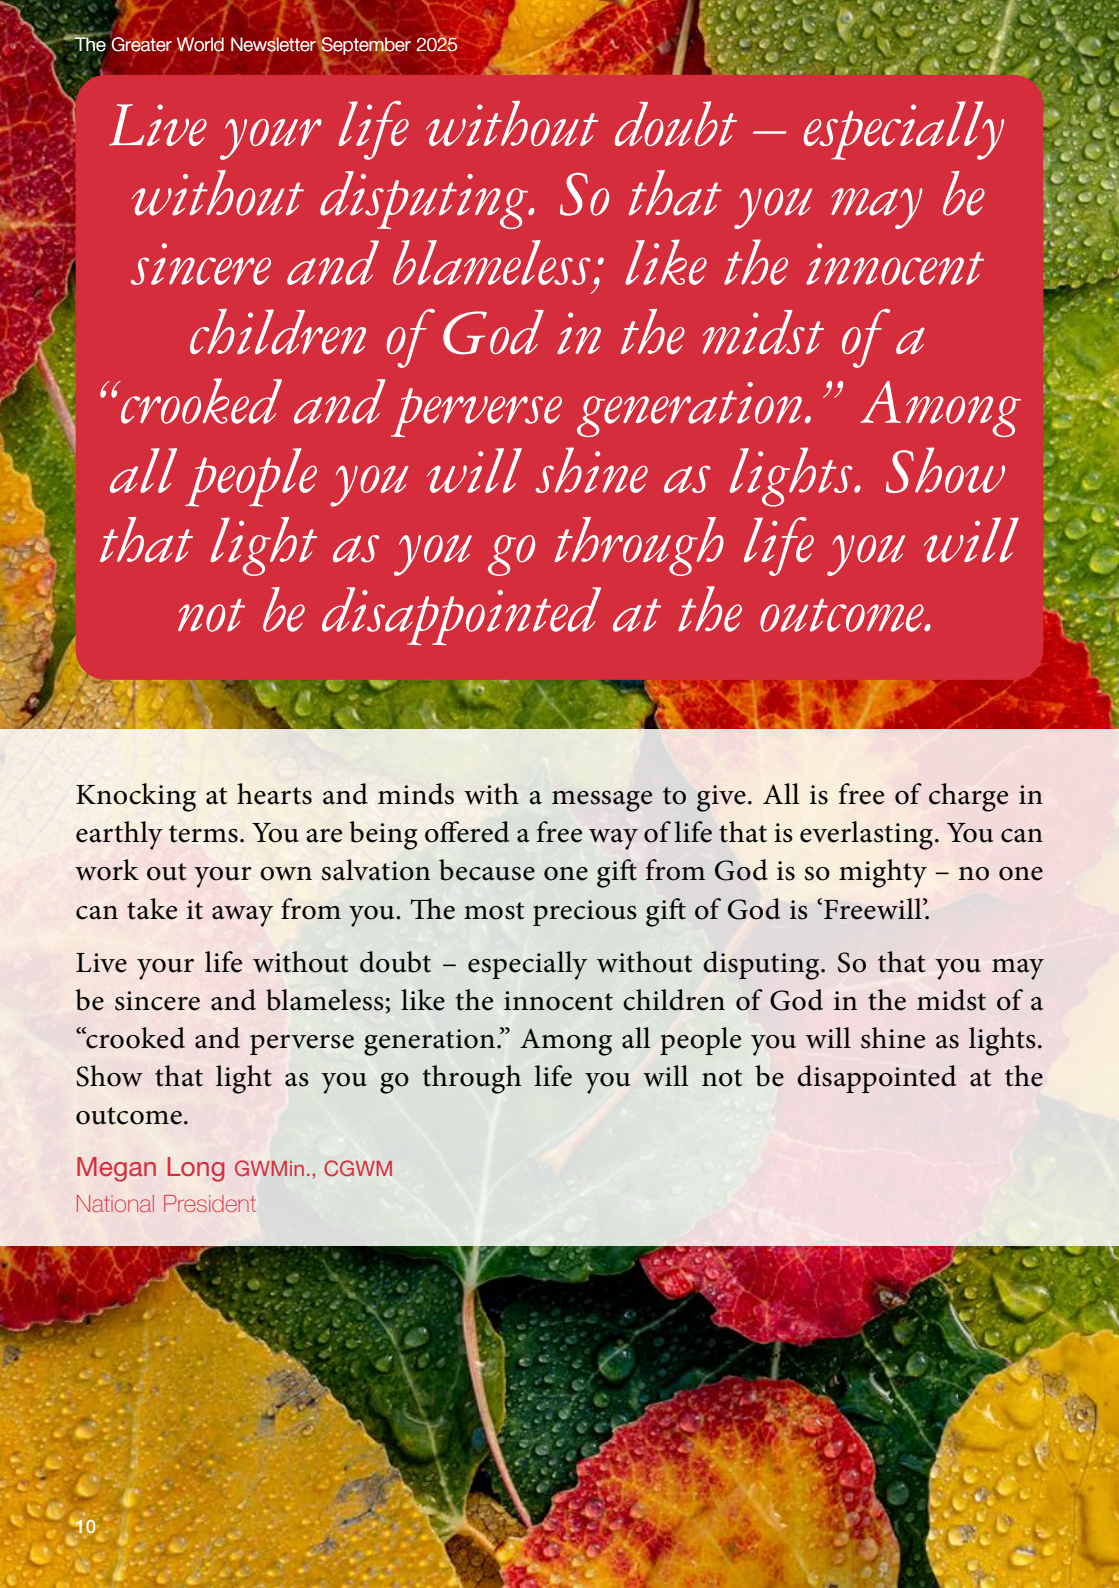

When you have found the truth of life – why you were born - you have found your reason for being. It is not to rule the world – it is not to have a huge bank balance – it is not to build your own world – but to help the world find the truth about life.

Phil 2: “If therefore you have found consolation in Christ or wholehearted love or fellowship of the spirit or compassion and mercies; be in one accord and one love and one soul and one mind.”

That is the completeness that the Christ taught. Knowing that you are a ‘servant’ of God. You are not alone. You are like the travelling salesman – going from place to place, door to door, knocking with a message to give.

*Many people believe that when they die their life is over – they are no more.
They will find out what you already know – life is everlasting.*

*When you have found the truth of life
– why you were born - you have found your reason for being. It is not to rule the world – it is not to have a huge bank balance – it is not to build your own world – but to help the world find the truth about life.*

The background of the entire page is a close-up photograph of autumn leaves. The leaves are in various stages of color change, showing vibrant reds, oranges, yellows, and some remaining green. They are covered in numerous small, clear water droplets, giving them a fresh, dewy appearance. The lighting is soft, highlighting the textures of the leaf surfaces and the glistening droplets.

Live your life without doubt – especially without disputing. So that you may be sincere and blameless; like the innocent children of God in the midst of a “crooked and perverse generation.” Among all people you will shine as lights. Show that light as you go through life you will not be disappointed at the outcome.

Knocking at hearts and minds with a message to give. All is free of charge in earthly terms. You are being offered a free way of life that is everlasting. You can work out your own salvation because one gift from God is so mighty – no one can take it away from you. The most precious gift of God is ‘Freewill’.

Live your life without doubt – especially without disputing. So that you may be sincere and blameless; like the innocent children of God in the midst of a “crooked and perverse generation.” Among all people you will shine as lights. Show that light as you go through life you will not be disappointed at the outcome.

Zodiac Prayer

O God, our Father, our stay in trouble, our guide through storm and trial, we come to You as children in need, asking that You will bestow upon us that uplifting grace which shall banish the world for this short sacred time when we meet together;
and shall link us more firmly with Thee, our Saviour and our King.

O God, remember not our frailties; grant that we may think thoughts of strength; knowing that when Thou commandest nothing of evil may step in if the faith is there.
Let us take the good gifts that Thou hast offered without question, without hesitation, certain that what Thou givest belongs to us.

In Thy mighty Heart of Love there is all understanding, all compassion; Thou wilt - out of Thy great Fount of Love, heal us, soothe us and recharge us with the courage to go on.

Thy sacred Name is our watchword, our talisman, our protection - Christ: Christ Who came to earth to bear the burdens of mankind. Christ who is linked to us through the body which cost so much and who understands so well the meaning and the power of pain.

O gracious Lord, open the doors of the mind so that Thy precious Light may shine in; where doubt and darkness hold chief place - grant that the light of comprehension, of spiritual vision may be there instead and remain for ever more.

In Thy hands we leave it all.
Send down the power and strength to do Thy work in the here and now as Thou hast done always in the past.

Amen

† News from Headquarters

Greetings from all at Headquarters. Unfortunately at present we are without Helen. She is greatly missed and we wish her well. Otherwise it is 'business as usual'.

Another student has completed the Messengership Course. We are very pleased with the result – I hope the student is too.

We are still hoping to be able to hold a Service at headquarters in the near future.... depending on time and workmen..... and the transport system.

Once again I ask the Affiliated Churches to contact headquarters to tell us how they are managing in these difficult times. If you need help please let us know. It is so important to remember why The Greater World came into being. Our Founders worked very hard to spread the Message all over the world. The experiences of some, knowing about The Greater World, who served in the Second World War, are truly remarkable. Winifred Moyes could not walk without sticks but that did not stop her from walking over bombed out buildings and rough ground to get to a Service. Some of those who set up The Greater World in the 1920's came from different countries and Winifred Moyes travelled to several countries spreading the message.

Information has reached headquarters from those who attend these churches are saying that the 'messages' have become more important than the Message. That was never meant to be. If you need help – just ask.

When Shakespeare said that all the world is a stage and all the people merely players he wasn't far wrong. Some people are playing a weird game with the whole world – its' called Self-satisfaction. The world today needs The Greater World – just as it did previously. We are now at the stage where the Message needs to be lived. Will you put your name on Gods' Register – your effort will not be in vain - most certainly it will be known by your Loving Father – God.

News from the Churches

Clarendon Road Sanctuary, Leeds

Warm and loving wishes from all your friends at the Leeds Sanctuary. We hope that you are enjoying the summer sunshine. As the sun shines down everyone seems happier and are busy spending time with family and friends in our great outdoors and truly enjoying nature. This is a lovely time to see nature producing the summer fruits, when bees are busy and nature starts to grow and produce beautiful flowers, colours and create such a great beauty. We are still holding one Service on a Sunday at 3.00pm, followed by Spiritual Healing for those who wish to stay. The Service for Holy Communion following the Divine Service held on the first Sunday of each month is well attended. Our social activity following the Service serving tea/coffee, cake and biscuits is well supported.

We at Leeds, with the help of friends are keeping the church a happy and welcoming place for all to enter. We are truly thankful for all those who give their time to help with the refreshments and keeping things tidy. When all are gathered together what a lovely sound is created, the tearoom often has loud laughter that fills the building.

We are still continuing to support those who are the most vulnerable across the city and the need for food, toiletries including requests for food for the animal kingdom. All generously donated and shared out with the help of the rapid response social workers. Who really appreciate the donations, and we are regularly updated and assured that we have made a big difference to those who received a food parcel.

During May we held a day of sittings that included a tombola. We had some lovely sweetie cones available to help with funds. The atmosphere in the church was great and the laughter of friends chatting together filled the corridor with much upliftment. Many thanks to all those who worked on the day, from the messengers who gave the private sittings, those who cleaned and prepared the rooms, set out the tables and chairs, prepared the refreshments, washed up and just shared a welcoming smile to everyone. We have a lovely bear who needs a home and a name and hopefully soon he will be heading off to his new home.

He's been a lovely fundraiser for us too to guess his name.

Thank you to everyone who helps us continue whether providing tombola gifts, tea, biscuits and anything that helps us to raise funds.

The love and healing that all receive from within is always a welcomed uplift and always appreciated. Our speakers always comment that they love to come and work in the building. In September we will be holding our Anniversary Service. I often think back to 1935 and the building opening to welcome women and children into the newly acquired night shelter. I wonder how many people came through the doors and received help, how many dedicated volunteers we had who ensured that people were fed, looked after and presented fresh clean sheets, a warm place and place to call safe. How many lives were touched? When the world outside may feel cold, we can always ensure a warm and loving welcome. It would be lovely to welcome more of the family of The Greater World to our Anniversary Service in September.

I wish to thank all our dedicated friends, for everything that they do. We have a good friend who will turn her hand to everything and anything and is not afraid to roll up her sleeves to do some of the less desirable tasks. I have seen her many times on hands and knees and even fixing the kitchen sink. To all who give that bit more of themselves to help the church, thank you very much for being part of the church so that we can continue the work of The Greater World.

Gathering together in church, saying prayers, singing together, healing, being together, brings so much joy to ourselves and to others. We look outside of our church into a world where there is so much going wrong and know that worldwide there is a great need for compassion and understanding, we continue to pray, sending healing thoughts.

Blessings to you all and we look forward to welcoming you to the Leeds Sanctuary.

Meditation for the healing of the world

Enter into your own healing temple – the place that you have created for yourself in the depths of your heart. Fill that sacred temple with the light and love of God. Feel that love that God has for you.

Raising your consciousness allow it to soar above the world so that you can see the whole world as a globe.

Gazing down upon the orb, see the wonderful blue that surrounds it and feel the healing power, that power for good, that is in the blue.

Now, consciously set in motion a rainbow of colour, like a wide vibrant, glowing ribbon.

This is a Greater World Rainbow:

Red, yellow, orange, green, blue, indigo, violet.

Controlling one end of this ribbon, set it around the earth, until every part of the earth is covered.

THEN: Entering into each colour in turn;

Send the prayer for - spiritual awakening within the red spectrum. Loving Father awaken the lives of mankind to spiritual energy; to provide clean air and safe power for the good of all mankind so that it will cease to be used for destructive purposes.

Send the prayer for - spiritual upliftment in the yellow band spectrum. Loving Father lift the souls of men that they may come to understand their reason for being. Acknowledging your love in practical aid for their fellow man and attaining loving wisdom in the healing heart and mind.

Send the prayer for – spiritual creation in the orange band spectrum. Loving Father lift the heart and mind of man that he may wish to create a spiritual way of life for himself and for his fellow man. Creating a better world for all Your children. Bringing into being ways to save the vegetable kingdom from mass destruction and the mineral kingdom from depletion.

Send the prayer for - spiritual love in the green band spectrum. Loving Father give to man the understanding of Your own unlimited, spiritual love that he might begin to comprehend and put into use that wonderful power of love for his fellow man, for the animal kingdom that suffers by the hand of man and of the elemental kingdom, so often forgotten, yet they work unstintingly to repair the damage done by man.

Send the prayer for – spiritual truth in the blue band spectrum. Loving Father, open the mouth of man that he may speak of Your wonderful truth wherever he may find himself. May he rejoice and praise and thank You on good days and bad days for all experiences of life are good in Your sight.

Send your prayer for – spiritual vision in the indigo spectrum. Loving Father open the eyes and ears of man that he may be able to wisely discern Your work so that he will not be led astray – so shall he be able to carry out Your work upon the earth. Let Your Will be done.

Send your prayer for – spiritual wisdom in the violet band spectrum. Loving Father open the heart and mind of man that he may see You as You truly are and know his place in your creation. So that all disease shall vanish. All wars shall cease and man shall become whole and take his natural place in Your great and wonderful universe of light.

Now the world is surrounded forever with the love and blessing of God our loving Father – because you have created it. Leave your own peace and love within that

We offer our prayers in the name of Jesus, the Healer of all mankind

“O God, send down Thy Power – Thy Power, Thy Peace, Thy quieting influence – send down Thy Power so that Thy children, in faith, in hope, and in anticipation, may receive Thy Healing Power in abundance, each according to their need. Amen”

Healing Prayer

Heavenly Father receive our prayers for the healing of the world and for the hearts and souls of all mankind. Our prayers go out to all who have no one to pray for them. We pray for the lost and the lonely, for the hungry and the desperately ill, for those who live alone and have to bear the toils of the day in pain and suffering. Give strength to those who are helping and giving of themselves in whatever capacity; those who are dealing with suffering throughout the world – not only those who are known to us – but to all mankind. Strengthen us as we go about our daily duties so that we may always remember our blessings – no matter how large or small. Give to us the understanding that we are all Thy children – strengthened by Thy love so that we may indeed grow in that love and knowledge that you offer so freely. In the Name of Jesus the Christ our Saviour Amen.

Man's Des

It is the Will of God that we meet together. Allow your thoughts to be raised above the earth and material things. Ponder upon those which shall last for evermore.

There are many enduring the earthly stage feeling that life has gone wrong. Somehow the scales of justice have not been kept level for them. All their hopes and high ideals have been crushed and there seems no one around to give the explanation that could soothe their aching heart. Be assured that the messages from the World of Spirit are meant for you. They are to help those who have found the hill of achievement overstep. It is your part – not only to listen – but to seek to learn, to make your own Divine Truth so that you can go to others who are hard beset and give them the illumination that shall bring peace to their tortured minds.

HOW PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE ARE INTERLOCKED

What is man's glorious destiny? You cannot think of the future without going back over the past. You are reminded that every soul created from the beginning is in the image of the Divine. After they have acquired experience and has been made his own man, a son of God, they will return in recognition to the Divine Image, gifted with power – not only with the gifts bestowed by a generous Father, but by the power that has come because at last those gifts have been bought by suffering and by understanding.

You are reminded that you have had many lives in many other worlds. Just as you will have many lives in many states after the physical body has played its part. Whether you believe it or not – is it not wise for those who have a Hereafter to consider what that Hereafter may represent! Many of you think of your loved ones who are no longer in a body of flesh. Sometimes in the silence of the night memory revives itself. You wonder what the loved one is doing; whether he/she has forgotten you or is conscious of the loneliness of your plight.

Remember the great gift of memory, because remembrance of the past – the lessons which have been learnt, the lives you have touched, your experiences – memory in its wider form will represent to you then a gift of very great importance. So much will depend upon it.

UNWISE TRAVELLERS INTO ANOTHER WORLD

Think of the travellers on earth who travel to other parts of the bringer to those in darkness.*

earth. The wise ones study what will be the utility to them when they are in changed conditions. They seek to make their own the habits of the people they will meet, as well as deal with the climatic conditions. They know that they will stand as a stranger in a strange land. It is wise to acquire the rudiments of knowledge as concerns that place where they must reside. You would say how foolish it was for a traveller to set forth without making due preparation. BUT – how many a traveller into the World of Spirit starts out not even believing that there is a condition into which he will surely pass! Doubting God, spurning the words of the Master, what of the arrival of such as these?

You may not know it, but man was born to be a missionary here and now. Man's portion is to be a light bringer to those in darkness. When such as these pass into the Better-

Land, in the degree that they ministered to another, that they comforted the mourner, that they raised the fallen, so it seems to them that region after region lies open before them.

Think of the awakening that comes to those who have repudiated God and His everlasting truth. Who is there to meet them? Surely the friends they chose themselves, the disembodied souls who are enemies of light and truth, some fearful to look upon, those who hold the keys of the prison-house in which the individual must dwell until at last, by suffering, something of understanding is made his own. Surely there is not one who cannot send out pity for what awaits a man or a woman after the transition, if such as these have been wedded to the earth and to material things. What of their remembrances? They look back over the past and see how

They may give donations to churches or temples – thinking that God is there and this gift will stand them in good stead in the by and by. But the awakening comes for these foolish ones – for God is not mocked – and the actions of man or woman stand second to the motive which inspired it.

they cheated their neighbour, how they hardened their heart against the sorrows of the poor, how they betrayed friendship, how they were willing to barter their very soul for a mess of pottage. Memory scourges them and it is something from which there is no escape.

EXCUSES FOR THINGS LEFT UNDONE

Man sins because he has not been rightly taught. There are many who make excuses while in the body. They may give donations to churches or temples – thinking that God is there and this gift will stand them in good stead in the by and by. But the awakening comes for these foolish ones – for God is not mocked – and the actions of man or woman stand second to the motive which inspired it.

Yet, there is comfort for the workers; for those who had much trouble; for those who have found that their very best seems to have been thwarted by an unkind fate and the message comes from the One Who loves you best... Jesus the Christ. In the day of revelation, when the body is cast aside and you stand free, there shall be one with the strength to turn the pages of the past and show you for your souls' gladness that all those things you hoped to accomplish – they are accomplished by the Power of Spirit. When you prayed for others that they might be helped, although the help was not visible to mortal eyes, the help was given to the very soul – the Real Self – and they shall bless your name.

THE HAPPIEST HOUR OF PHYSICAL LIFE

Think then, as wise custodians of Divine gifts, do not allow your minds to be blinded by earthly thinking. For earthly things must pass away. The things eternal have to be faced when the change called death comes for you. The master wishes you to know that there are many who believe that the transition shall represent the happiest hour of physical life. Gone the pains of the body, gone the misunderstanding, gone the anxiety, gone the remembrance of betrayals. Around you shall be those you love the best and because you suffered and sought to be strong, because you have climbed and you wanted to help others – so you shall see that disembodied souls, radiant to look upon, stand ready to make use of you in the world where work for God represents the highest and happiness can come to anyone.

So, consider within the details of your own life, to have the courage to go back over the past and to face the troubles which the years have held and to see things as they really are. Not as things that have gone wrong, not as deep wounds that have bruised your very being, but as essential lessons, lessons in this sense:

So, consider within the details of your own life, to have the courage to go back over the past and to face the troubles which the years have held and to see things as they really are. Not as things that have gone wrong, not as deep wounds that have bruised your very being, but as essential lessons, lessons in this sense:

They disciplined the soul of man. Again and again this point is underlined. How can man become a teacher unless he is willing to learn in the first stage? Are there not many in darkness? Are there not many broken-hearted? Who is the one to speak to such as these? The one who has had an easy life, the one who has never been tried by adversity? Common sense answers “No”. The only one who can give the word of understanding and of real comfort is the one who has been through that same experience – and by prayer, by patience, has found that God's ways are best.

WHO ARE THE FORTUNATE ONES?

Does it not alter the whole aspect of physical life when you have the true view? Also when you are guided by spiritual understanding? Then you look upon those named 'Lucky' – the ones who have never experienced pain or poverty – and you pause and think: "After all, are they so fortunate? What will be their position in God's Fair Land when earthly things have passed away, when worldly fame is as nothing, for the verities of the Spirit are on either side? Where will be the equipment of such as these, what can they do, what knowledge can they produce?"

Finance in the next world is a mockery in earthly terms. But there are possessions, there are treasures and these are represented by remembrance of effort in the past, for through that remembrance so the strength comes and the knowledge and you can stand as a servant of God, as someone who can be trusted to go back into the earth plane and minister to the suffering souls who are there, not knowing the reason for their pain, not knowing it is the way to God!

Does it not alter the whole aspect of physical life when you have the true view? Also when you are guided by spiritual understanding? Then you look upon those named 'Lucky' – the ones who have never experienced pain or poverty – and you pause and think

Think of the men and women in other situations – has God forgotten them? We are all equal in the sight of God; we are all His children and Heaven – as you name it – would be incomplete if one soul was missing. This is why men have stumbled over the past. There have been those segregating themselves from others, claiming to be God's elect; but in the Fathers' sight all His children are equal

THE PAGANS' PLACE IN THE SCHEME OF THINGS

Think of the men and women in other situations – has God forgotten them? We are all equal in the sight of God; we are all His children and Heaven – as you name it – would be incomplete if one soul was missing. This is why men have stumbled over the past. There have been those segregating themselves from others, claiming to be God's elect; but in the Fathers' sight all His children are equal – no one is loved in a wider measure than another; yet to those who are so helpless surely He sends His messengers in larger numbers, for their need is far greater than yours in this same country, with the knowledge and the illumination that can be your own.

When you think of loved ones in the Beyond let your thoughts go out to them and realise that in the degree that they can come back and stimulate your memory to do good to others, to serve your neighbour, so they are progressing and you are emerging from the lesser self. When you are free, when the earth life with its darkness and wonderings has been laid aside, think of the wonderful gift of memory and how through that gift you may go wherever you will upon the earth in the wise: LOVE INDICATES! If there are not those for whom you feel love, then because sympathy is the twin sister of love, by your remembrance of those upon the earth I other lands, who were starved and beaten, those who were under the heel of authority, those who had no medical appliances to stem their pain, those who had to live as animals but without animals' privileges – by remembering such as these, through the compassion sent out to them – lo – the Master can open the way and allow you to go back -- with power – to be a missionary in very truth.

The reason for spirit return must be emphasised again and again. It is not just the giving of messages, to say that those in the Beyond are remembering you, for they cannot forget you; not the reassuring over your material welfare, because your spiritual welfare is so far greater in importance.

Spirit communion was meant to reunite soul to soul, so that when the change comes for those in the body, they may not feel as strangers, they may not have to stand aside while others can come forward and do the work. There is no going back over unlearned lessons, no bondage, but a liberty of the spirit and an opening out of the realms of revelation so that with joy you can link up with those you love and together work for God and not become weary.

HELPING TO PREPARE HOMES ON THE OTHER SIDE

The kind of work depends upon the experience you have obtained. Do you ever think of the homes which have to be prepared for those who are sick and lonely and neglected upon the earth? Some of you delight to gather flowers and to put them in a room where a loved one will be. Some of you like to till the land to bring into being your own flowers to pass on to others. These privileges are greatly enhanced in the World of Spirit. However, many are held back because they do not know how to employ the gift of Divinity that is within them. Some of the 'wiseacres' are glad to learn from a little child – how to make a daisy chain. For the only way to make a daisy chain unassisted is by gaining the seed from the Great Creator – and through the love that is given to the little flower. In this simple simile is explanation of the great creative gift in man when he is free from the restrictions and limitations. In the degree that you love so you can create life, just the same as in the degree that the artist or the musician loves his work, so the great measure of life is brought to that work.

All these things are instances of Reality; are reflections of the true state of things when the body is no more. Therefore, by taking up a task, whatever that task may be,

It is good to look upon the old and the weak who were faithful when once the freedom is made their own. Many a weak woman or man lying on a bed of pain have longed that another might be spared the trial that they are going through. A wonderful thought! When such as these are free, the power of healing has been released within. Apply the principle to the things of daily life.

and doing it to the best of your ability, you are realising within yourself the Divine gift of creation – which shall stand you in good stead when the body is no more.

There are many who have compassionate hearts – that when another has been poorly they have sympathised and have tried to help. In the by and by the remembrance of putting into practice the brotherhood of man will show something of the Divine Power which God has gifted to you. There will be many, not knowing you but feeling that power, who shall gain courage, renewed strength and go their way – if not rejoicing, then with a quiet heart, seeking to say: “Not my will but Thine be done, oh Loving Father!”

Man’s glorious destiny – and it can indeed be glorious if only man will be honest with himself in this same stage. It can be inglorious, something from which to shrink – if the opportunities of today are neglected – if the sweet voices of the loved ones in the Better Land are ignored. Man’s glorious destiny is to be a saviour under the great Saviour of us all; a Saviour, a rescuer who, having gained the experience can throw the life-line to drowning souls to bring them safely back to the Cross and all that it means.

HOW TO CONTROL OUR FATE

As you think of spirit communion, pray to the Father that the very soul within you may be stirred; that you may have the courage to come to grips with life as it is for you today; that you may make your vows anew to prepare; and wherever you may be, whatever your environment, your opportunities are second to none. By the trials that surround you can show how man can conquer, how weak woman can be

MISS WINIFRED MOYES devoted her life to acting as the sole instrument for the inspired teachings of 'Zodiac' who in his earthly life was a teacher in the Temple of Jerusalem at the time of Jesus. He chose the name 'Zodiac' to lift men's thoughts from the earth to the heavens'. Zodiac delivered 1,475 addresses between 1924 and 1957 at meetings which often attracted thousands of people. The teachings continued to inspire those enquiring into the meaning and purpose of life, the function of the natural gifts of Healing and Spirit Communion, and the reassurance of the immortality of the Spirit. Zodiac named his great work 'The Christ Mission', and it is upon this that The Greater World is founded.

Witnesses of the Light

Those you love have brought you into contact with me. Each one has been in my love since the life before this earthly stage. The Master directs me to speak with assurance that in the previous physical stage and then in the “before stage” you sought to find the Light. In “this stage” you have gained a measure of Light. In the stage to come you shall find that the Light that is of the Spirit is all around.

This Light exposes what the physical journey has experienced. It makes clear the reasons for the pains of physical life.

It reveals the mighty purpose behind all those things that by experience of your life you have been forced to do without.

YOU ARE THE WITNESSES OF THE LIGHT OF GOD. However, before you can show others anything of the Light – which is Divine – which is Holy within – you must have a measure of freedom. You must have found a degree of release from all those material things that bind you. This is the message for that great throng composed of the children of God – who only lately have called back to remembrance that they are indeed the children of God and heirs of everlasting life.

To the great crowd of souls I pass on encouragement from the Redeemer Himself. Out of the darkness you have found the strength to seek a little Light. By pursuing the difficult road in time you shall be Witness of that light which never fades – that Light of God – of the God controlling Spirit – the Creator of all things – the One who trod the earth path – He was and is and will always be - the Light of the World.

Think about the great and grand link between the Source of Light and ourselves. Think again of those in the far past who knew so little – yet today – they are recognized as prophets inspired by the Holy Spirit. Think of the many who did not worship the Great Spirit in the same way that you understand the Godhead. Yet these, out of the release of the Divine within, spread a measure of Light amongst their own people and wherever they went.

They taught that by sacrifice the true man or woman was expressed. They taught that by denying the physical body, preparation was made for a higher development when greater gifts and powers would be their own.

If you have Spiritual knowledge you are brought face to face with the fact that mental intelligence is a very valueless thing in comparison with the release of the Real Mind connected with the Divinity which lies within.

Tribute

In August Margaret Bellamy retired as a Trustee for The Greater World. She was appointed to the Office in October 1993 – making that a steady 32 years of Service - the longest term of Service by any one person for many years.

The Service she brought to the church made it possible for the training of other workers in the teaching field to learn and take on responsibilities of their own. The Healing Training has made it possible for the work to be carried on. When the church was closed due to Covid the work was still able to be carried on by thought and word – if not by physical deed. Spiritual Healing is still offered for free in the church today.

With the support of her husband Trevor she was able to care for the welfare of the congregation as well as for the building. Many of you will know what it takes to keep the peace amongst people and to take on the care of a building.

We thank you Margaret for a long and dedicated service to The Greater World as will all those who have crossed your path in many other ways. May you and Trevor enjoy your retirement for many years to come.

With loving blessing

Daily Prayer

Father God we approach Thee with confidence, certain that Thou art always ready to listen to Thy children's petitions; certain that Thou hast provided for us all that which the Soul within desires.

O Christ, grant that we, being made aware of what we are and to whom we belong, may take up our lives, in whatever sphere they may be and joyfully continue the way, giving out of ourselves those gifts which Thou has bestowed; ever striving to make our own those possessions of the Soul which Thou wouldst have us use and re-use.

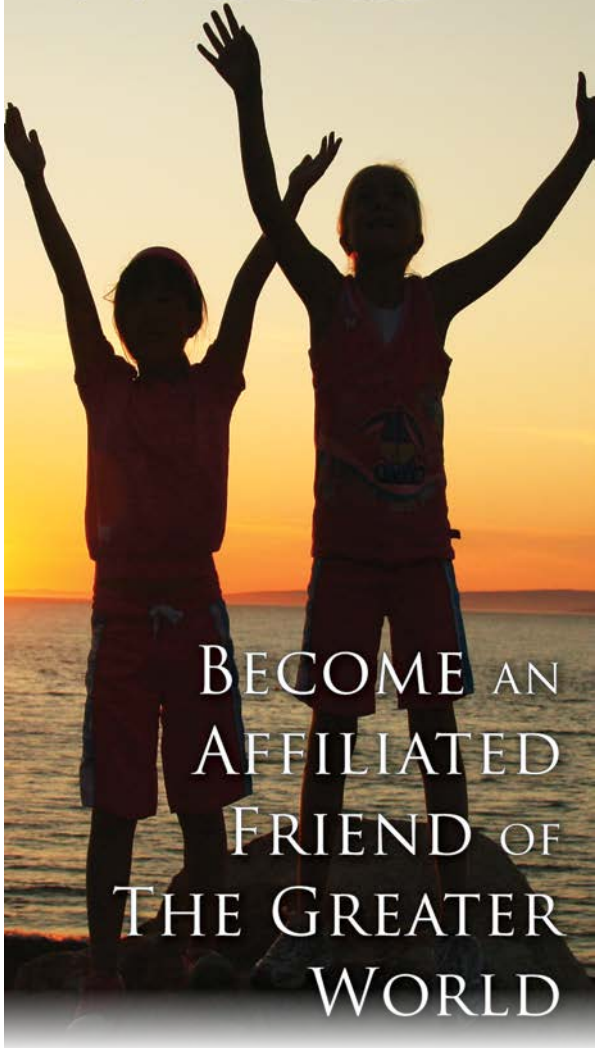

Grant that we may feel that Thou art in our presence; grant that perfect confidence which Thou hast offered to all may be made our own now and forever more.

Give us the instinct to love, to cheer, to comfort and to inspire others; so that we may feel that we are carrying out Thy Missionary work; that we are portraying to our fellow man something of the wonder which Thy Love represents.

Father we thank Thee for what we are and what we know and what we can achieve. Bless us as we go along our way – which we do in Thy Name.

Amen

MESSENGERS OF THE WORD

The background of the advertisement features a photograph of two children standing on a rocky shore, their silhouettes against a bright sunset over the ocean. Both children have their arms raised high in the air, reaching towards the sky. The child on the left is slightly shorter and is wearing a dark t-shirt and shorts. The child on the right is taller, wearing a light-colored tank top with a logo and dark shorts. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm, golden glow that fills the sky and reflects on the water.

Jesus turned to His disciples and said to them; “Everything has been entrusted to Me by my Father; and no man knows who is the Son except the Father; and who is the Father except the Son, and to whomever the Son wishes to reveal Him. “Blessed are the eyes which see what you see. “ For I say unto you that many prophets and kings desired to see what you see and did not see it; and to hear what you hear – and did not hear it.

And behold a scribe stood up to test Him. He said, “Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus said to him, “What is written in the law? How do you read it?”

He answered, “You must love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind; and your neighbour as yourself. Jesus said to him. “You spoke the truth; do this and you shall live. “ But as the man wanted to justify himself he asked – “And who is my neighbour?”

Jesus said to him, There was a man who went down from Jerusalem to Jericho and the bandits attacked him and left him with little life remaining in him, and they went away.

And it chanced a priest was going down that road; he saw the man and passed on. Likewise a Levite came and arrived at that place, saw him and passed on.

But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was and when he saw him he had compassion on him.

And he came to him and bound up his wounds and poured on them wine and oil; and he put him on his own ass and brought him to the inn and took care of him.

In the morning he took out two pennies and gave them to the innkeeper and said to him; “Take care of him; and whatever you spend more, when I return, I will give it to you.”

Who therefore of these three, as it appears to you, became neighbour to him who fell into the hands of the bandits?

The man answered, “The one who had compassion on him.” Jesus said to him. “You go also and do likewise.”
