Jesus said:

“I have come into the world as the Light, so that whoever believes in Me may not remain in darkness.”

There are many ideas as to what Easter is all about. However, it is really one of the greatest manifestations of God’s love to all His children – everywhere – all over the world. It is a time for the beginning of a new life; not one about what you can get for yourself – but what you can do for others. As you give – so shall you receive.

Jesus taught the people by parables – like children’s stories they are easy to remember. When the Israelites asked Jesus for an explanation about His foretold death He called them ‘An evil and adulterous generation wanting a sign’. But no sign will be given except the sign of the prophet Jonah. As Jonah was in the belly of the whale three days and three nights – the Son of Man will be in the heart of the earth three days and three nights. Matt. 12

Jesus gave His life for us – what do we give to Him? But, more importantly, He did even more than that – He taught us a way of life that will lead to Everlasting Life – providing that we follow His instructions, His teachings and His Way of Life. Because of His life on earth we know about the Kingdom of God within us – and that it is free. We are heirs of this Kingdom and all the gifts of that Inheritance can be ours – providing that we are prepared to ‘work in His vineyard’.

Jesus instructed us to build our foundation upon a rock – that rock is His teaching. But mankind is wayward and like the story of the Three Little Pigs – there are some who think they know best. These little pigs wanted to build a house for themselves; but they wanted to build it their way – because they thought that their way was best.

From the experiences of the disciples we know that the pathway will not be free of troubles. Take a short time to think about what you have been able to give to others, how you have helped others along a difficult time in their life. Some will have shown their gratitude – others will not. What does it matter..... you have carried out the task. What a legacy, what a memory you will leave behind when you enter into Gods' wonderful Kingdom.

Jesus instructed us to build our foundation upon a rock – that rock is His teaching. But mankind is wayward and like the story of the Three Little Pigs – there are some who think they know best. These little pigs wanted to build a house for themselves; but they wanted to build it their way – because they thought that their way was best. They all listened to the instructions they were given but not all of them heard what was said! A children's story – quite – but worth the message it entails.

The first little pig built his house of straw. He spent a long time making it safe and secure – as he thought – but after he had lived in it for a while there came a big storm and the wind blew and blew. It was so strong that it blew the house to bits – and the bits flew away. So he ran to another pig and begged him to take him in as he had no home. After giving the request time and thought the second pig took pity on him and did just that.

The second pig had built his house of twigs. He spent a long time making it safe and secure. Intertwining twigs and making sure that the walls were sturdy and strong. The two pigs were sure that this house was more secure than the first – so they settled down to live together comfortably. Then another storm came and blew and blew and blew. The rain poured down, everywhere began to leak and the little twig house was washed away. The petrified pigs ran as fast as they could to the third little pig.

The third little pig had paid attention to the advice he was given and he built his house on a firm foundation, the walls were of brick and mortar and the roof was strong. The two little pigs who had lost their homes ran to the third little pig and begged him to take them in. The third little pig had looked after his house – however, he took pity on them and let them in.

The second pig had built his house of twigs. He spent a long time making it safe and secure. Intertwining twigs and making sure that the walls were sturdy and strong. The two pigs were sure that this house was more secure than the first – so they settled down to live together comfortably. Then another storm came and blew and blew and blew.

It is important to be “doers of the Word of God”. Hearing alone is of no value if you do not put what you have heard into action. It is left to your imagination as to the state of minds of the first two little pigs. Do not be disheartened by the harsh words of others or their actions that try to take you away from your path – but only show that they are not working for God’s purpose here on earth.

When the storms came and the winds blew and the rain poured down the house stood firm and the three little pigs lived happily together.

Wasn't it a good thing that the third little pig had listened to the instructions he was given and followed the plans! He was then able to provide a comfortable and safe home for the two wayward little pigs who thought that they knew best.

It is important to be “doers of the Word of God”. Hearing alone is of no value if you do not put what you have heard into action. It is left to your imagination as to the state of minds of the first two little pigs. Do not be disheartened by the harsh words of others or their actions that try to take you away from your path – but only show that they are not working for God’s purpose here on earth.

You are like the pioneers of old who go out to meet the foe, putting on your armour of strength and confidence in God and in the Love of Jesus the Christ who is your everlasting companion.

Every time you help someone the power of the Holy Spirit is made manifest upon the earth. Its mystery is always with you so that you can call upon it whatever the need, wherever you find yourself.

“We know that all things work together for good to them that Love God, to them who are called, according to His purpose.” Romans 8v28

No one needs to remain in darkness when you can be their light in a darkened world. You have a Leader, so Gentle, so Loving, so understanding, that you can go to Him at any time when the warfare of the day, the battle, has weakened your resolve and He will lead you out of the darkness into that Light of re-affirmation, re-dedication and towering strength.

“Beautiful is the world of God around and about us – but even more beautiful is the world of God within us.”

There is a beautiful children’s hymn that uplifts the soul and gives encouragement to all, whatever age they might be. If you sang it as a child – it is one hymn

No one needs to remain in darkness when you can be their light in a darkened world. You have a Leader, so Gentle, so Loving, so understanding, that you can go to Him at any time when the warfare of the day, the battle, has weakened your resolve and He will lead you out of the darkness into that Light of re-affirmation, re-dedication and towering strength.

*Jesus bids us shine, with a pure clear light;
Like a little candle burning in the night.
In this world of darkness,
so we must shine –
You in your small corner and I in mine.*

whose words you will remember for ever.

Jesus bids us shine, with a pure clear light;
Like a little candle burning in the night.
In this world of darkness, so we must shine –
You in your small corner and I in mine.

Jesus bids us shine, first of all for Him;
Well He sees and knows it if our light is dim.
He looks down from heaven to see us shine –
You in your small corner and I in mine.

Jesus bids us shine, then, for all around,
Many kinds of darkness in this world are found -
Sin and want and sorrow; so, we must shine –
You in your small corner and I in mine.

AMEN

God bless you all this Easter time, full of flowers of Love and the Life-Giving knowledge that one day we shall all meet at Jesus' feet.

Zodiac Prayer

O God, our heavenly Father, Thou Who hast given unto us the privilege of calling ourselves Thy children,
Grant that we, fixing our eyes upon the Christ,

May become more like the One Who loves us best.
Grant that we may be grateful that the call has come to us,
That we may realise that we have placed upon ourselves that which is the cloak of service,
And with this wrapped around us
The protection is complete.

Father, we are conscious of failure.
There is much that must be overcome.
Yet sometimes we fail to find within the valiant heart and the understanding mind that which allows us to grasp the Cross.

We thank Thee for the gift of sorrow because of the mighty gain it brings.
Let us become aware that we are linked to Thee in that which represents the burdens of daily life.

We pray in the Name of All Love

Amen

† News from Headquarters

Greetings from headquarters. It is hoped that you had a good Christmas and are now refreshed and ready to go ahead with all the joys and preparations for Easter. It is later this year - at least that will allow for a little more preparation. Belated New Year Greetings to you all. Thank you to all those who renewed their 'Friendship' and to the churches who still wish to support the Message of The Greater World - wherever you may be. I understand that it is very difficult to find suitable Messengers in some places. This, I believe is a very common occurrence when trying to create a programme for the year.

Telling the 'Christ Message' into the world these days is indeed difficult. But that is what The Greater World is all about. When people are only seeking messages of a personal nature it is not easy to explain where the Christ Message fits into their lives - and how much their life depends upon them.

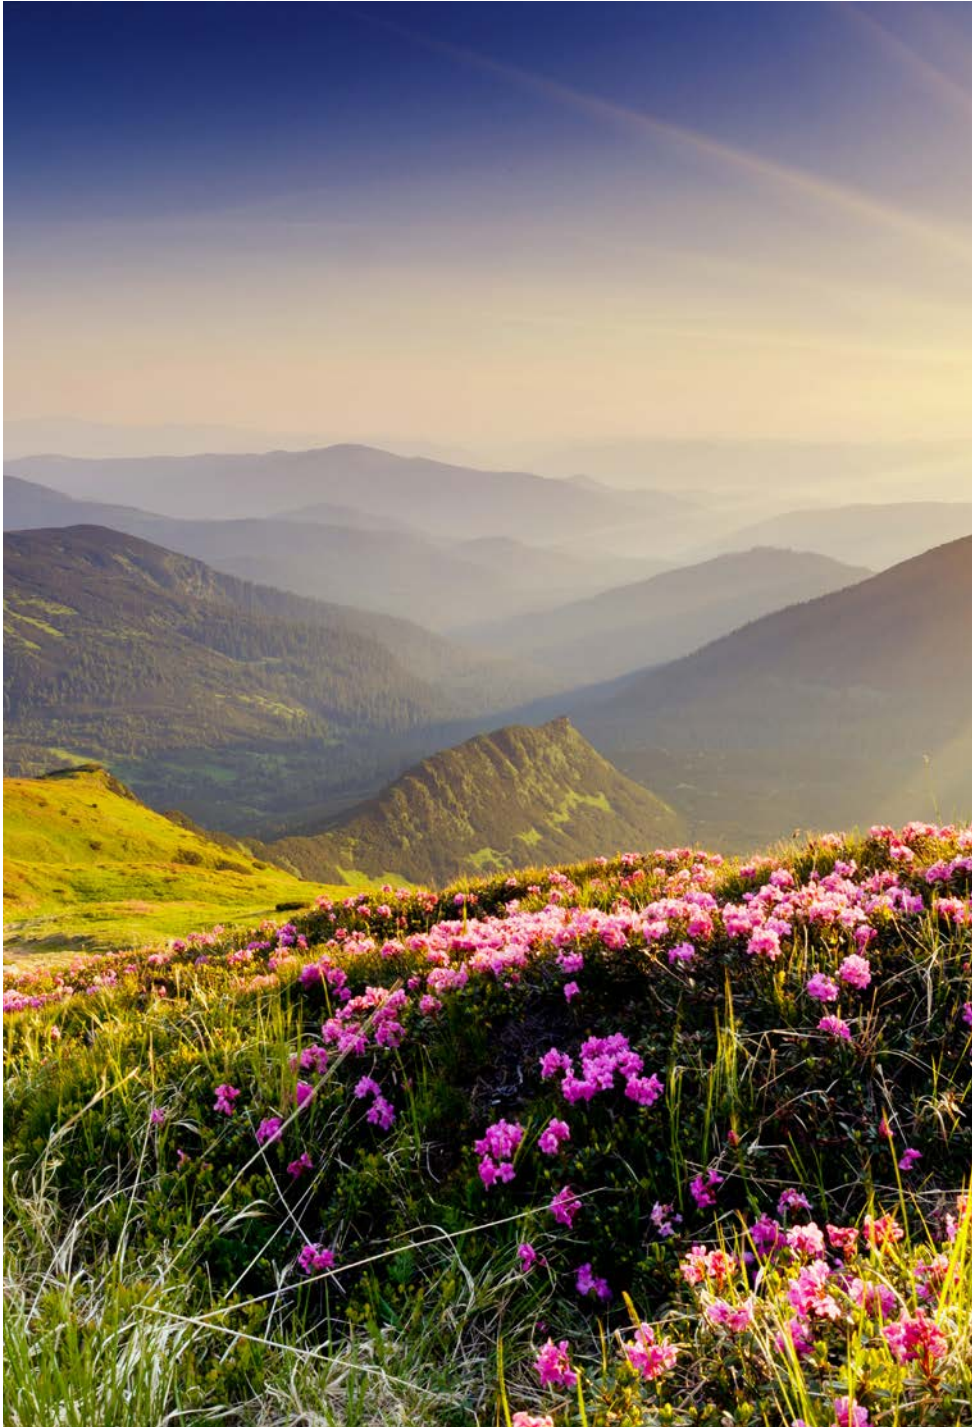

Several of our churches who have found it difficult to find a Messenger have started to read the Zodiac Messages from the variety of books that we have for purchase at headquarters. When some people only come for 'messages' it makes it difficult for those who come to hear the Message. I am sure that many of you are saddened by the state of the world. That is why The Greater World has had several books printed with different messages - but always providing an answer to the problems of the day. I am sure that one of your Officers would be only too pleased to participate in the spreading of the Message.

Putting the Messages in print began many years ago. These were sent out to the churches as requested and read every week. When it was found out that churches could have a copy of the Messages requests came in from all over the country. We have a variety of choice and they are all on the website bookshop.

Please let us know how you get on.

If you have any news that you would like to share with the 'family' please let us know.

News from the Churches

Clarendon Road Sanctuary, Leeds

The Greater World Family at Leeds Sanctuary send you all New Year greetings. What a year it has been, so many difficulties for everyone – with wet weather, wind and floods, cold frost and snow. Hopefully, daily life is getting back to normal as we look forward to Spring.

Church Services have continued at 3.00pm each Sunday throughout the year and offer a short Spiritual Healing Session. A Service for Holy Communion is held once a month.

On Remembrance Sunday we welcomed friends and family to worship together and remembered and prayed for all those men and women who made the ultimate sacrifice during the many wars, conflicts and troubles around our world.

We should have held an Afternoon of Private Sitzings on the 23rd November which was postponed due to the heavy snow that fell early on Saturday morning. The thaw came swiftly afterwards bringing further disruption to transport and arrangements. We hope to hold another soon.

An uplifting Carol Service was held on Sunday 22nd December with a Service of Readings and Carols chaired by Revd. Angela Marshall. The Lessons were read by members of the congregation interspersed with carols accompanied on the organ by Marley Watson. . An inspiring Christmas Message from our National President, Revd. Megan Long, was read and well received,. Seasonal refreshments were served after the Service, good wishes, love and Christmas Blessings were exchanged as everyone then made their way home.

The Church closed for Christmas and the New Year celebrations and opened again on Sunday January 5th 2025 at 3.00pm for the Spring Season. We look forward to celebrating the various Christian Festivals preceding Lent, leading up to Easter.

Please continue to send out your loving, Healing Prayers and thoughts to all who are in need at this time. Give thanks for all that you have received. We have many opportunities and receive blessings and know that love is the strongest power in the world. Be positive in your knowledge of the Love of God and Jesus our Saviour and let your light continue to shine out into a darkened world.

Spring will soon be on its way; trees budding, bulbs sprouting, animals, birds and other creatures busy preparing for new birth and the seasons move on once again. Enjoy all that you do; observe the changes around you and watch the beauty of Nature giving you renewed strength.

As Easter approaches be aware of the significance of this special season – never more needed than now – not only for us but also for the whole world – as you take part in the various Services.

Take care of yourselves; your loved ones and stay safe. We send Love for a Blessed Easter to everyone.

God bless you in all your endeavours.

The Great Surrender

There is a world all around you that you can scarcely grasp. Around you are conditions and people who are hidden from your consciousness. Communication with the world of spirit could not take place were it not for the power of the Holy Spirit. Some Spirits come into the earth condition seeking to use an instrument and do so only in part. What emanates through the instrument is that which is hindering to the progress of man. In regard to such as these, both the instrument that is used and the one who seeks to use are piling up for themselves suffering in time to come. For the gift of communication is Holy and because it is Holy should be treated with the greatest reverence and respect.

If the message that comes from a communicator does not reflect the mind of God or the attitude of the Christ then know that it would have been better if the communicator and the one who used it had not entered into physical existence. Lift your thoughts above the earth, above the material things, even above those you love so well and place them as an offering to the One who has given and continues to give so much.

Your minds often go back to those who gave their lives for their brother – the soldiers of the King or Queen. These were not only soldiers of an earthly Monarch, they were warriors of the King of Kings. They have entered into the conditions of brightness and peace undreamed of by you. It was indeed the great surrender. But a time will come when mankind will be called upon to forsake their toys, even the tools of the mind that stand between them and the work of the Christ. The time will come when the individual, those with a measure of sight and a measure of understanding will be called upon to make the great surrender.

It is easy to talk of sacrifice when sacrifice is far off. It is easy for those in security to send out others to fight and to withstand the anguish of the physical garment. It is easy for those comfortably placed to encourage the workers, to those who are short of the necessities of life to be of good cheer – telling them that tomorrow will bring better things.

There are always those who preach and those who act. There are always those who think and those who try to set into being the noble thoughts that possess their minds. If the Master, when walking on the earth had done nothing but think great thoughts, even the great loving thoughts, then He would not have been called the Saviour of the world. When you pass out of this plane into reality you will be astounded to find that what you regarded as work and effort represented only a fragment, only a shadow of the work and the effort that abounds in those realms, which are truly Spirit.

You must be prepared and you must be warned. Coming upon this earth are troubles in numerous forms that must be overcome. The time for the preparation is now. Speed in preparing the groundwork is essential and needs to be hastened in a way hitherto undreamed of by you. The only way to prepare, the only way to build up a foundation that will enable you to say and mean when trouble strikes the earth, security is by training yourself at this same stage and to make the great surrender.

Your thoughts go out to those you love so well. Children, torn, as it were, from their mother's arms; return, bringing gifts and the sweet flowers of forgetfulness and they lay them at your feet. Even if the children do not belong to you, know that we are all one family under the Father and Mother God. The little ones do His work in His way and so they pass in and out and amongst you at all times, leaving behind sweetness and peace and simplicity and that love that one day man must make his own.

What of you and the call to surrender? The children who answered the call of duty have reaped what they have sown. Some went because the greater self within demanded the sacrifice, others went because authority commanded and would not be withstood. Yet those forced into the fight in the measure that they sought to bear the burdens of the weaker and the frailer, they too have reaped a harvest second to none. For the mighty Mind of Love takes even that reluctance, when the reluctance subsides and creates something that shall never pass away

They come to you also. Many whom you call strangers, but the word 'stranger' is unknown to those in the world of Spirit. We are all brothers and sisters. Some a little older perchance, some a little younger. The age or youth is marked only by the experience undertaken and the suffering endured.

Think a while as to the great surrender. For indeed you must build truly; you must build firmly; for great things are coming to pass. In your daily life in the small things as well as those that seem so important, realise that you are a traveller along the road that leads home to God. Then ask yourself whether you wish to remain a traveller or become a pilgrim!

In time, either on this plane or in one of those conditions beyond the earth, each one must emerge out of the traveller stage and become a pilgrim. Then the pilgrim, with the staff of faith and with the cross upon the brow, little by little, trains themselves to make the great surrender.

In your daily life are trials, irritations and all that at times causes the heart to ache. Within you are two parts that function upon different planes, keyed to different conditions. There is the Divine within you and there is the lesser self. Which of these two shall dominate your lives? Choose, make the decision now, seek the full surrender.

As you awaken, sadness perhaps seizes the physical mind. You remember the uncongenial task, the conditions that seem so out of harmony with that which you love. As you wake in the morning these thoughts keep creeping through the mind and there are many who dread the coming day. The mere fact that life presents a problem is an indication that the traveller desires to become a pilgrim. Those who love the Master seek to gather close. As physical consciousness returns, raise the heart and mind to the One who loves you best. Do not wish for the day to be over. Rather offer yourself to God to be used according to His Holy Will.

These are little things perhaps. But only by observing the little things can the time come when the great surrender is made. You cannot grow in an hour. Over the long past the Divine within you has fought and struggled for its freedom. That past is unknown to you. Long before the earth came into use for God's purpose, you functioned in other conditions, other planets, other planes of consciousness.

Over the years you have had thousands of lives. Before the physical garment you now inhabit was ready for you, as spirits you walked with others imprisoned in their physical bodies, you learned lessons with them and that is what has brought you to this stage in your life. In a measure you are trained, in a measure you understand and in a measure you have illumination. But that understanding and that illumination must not pause here. God holds out to His children revelation in a form so gigantic that the physical mind cannot grasp it. But there are some who will witness great and glorious things before the body is cast aside. These are they who endeavour to make the great surrender.

Bear in mind this great and wonderful thought! The Master, the Source of Wisdom, has opened the gate and bids you enter in. But the only way to cross the threshold of seeming reality and pass into reality is the way that the Master, Himself trod. Little by little and as you go, relinquishing the physical will. God does not want you as puppets, as echoes of that which He has laid down. The gift of free-will shall never be taken from you. As you seek to give your physical will into the safe-keeping of God so a miracle will take place. Self-will gives way to something glorious, something charged with power. Hand the lesser will into the safe-keeping of the One who loves you best and that will result in a thousandfold strength coming back to you, allowing the free working of the Divine Will, part of the equipment housed within.

These words may sound urgent and perhaps a little stern, but you are being urged to prepare, to walk warily, for underlying this warning is a great and glorious hope. So look over your equipment and seek to make the full surrender. The time is coming when those governed by the physical minds, chained to the conditions of the earth, will be as straying sheep, without anyone to draw them back into the safety of the faith and trust in God.

In that time only a few will be able to stand free from the turmoil, the tumult of the earth and look up and see the Master and gain assurance direct from Him. For only a few will listen to that which God has sent.

So we come back to those who have moved a little further, gave their lives and left much sorrow and desolation behind. Through that which they endured they purchased something of courage, that great courage that comes with illumination and they speak to you through your hearts if not through your minds and their message is Prepare, Prepare. For great things are coming to pass.

Laughter reaches your ears and lightens the heaviness of earth conditions. Those who gave their all are laughing, throwing out upon the vibrations their brightness and their joy. Can you not see that when the earth life is over it has to be either joy or sadness, laughter or tears? In the measure that those in the physical body hold back, in that measure so the laughter is quenched and the anguish is great.

The gifts of the mind are precious only in the degree that they are used for God's work. The gifts of the hands are precious but if the hands are used to deal destruction to others for the sake of material gain and power, then better to be without hands that can then not be used by the destructive forces.

It is sweet to look upon the beauties of nature, to raise the eyes to heaven, to the blue sky and the sunshine, to catch the sweet note of the free song bird. All these things are precious to you when you walk upon the earth. There is compassion for the blind and compassion for the lame. But the eyes of the physical body that look upon their handiwork and see that which is travesty of God's love, that which is denial of the purity and holiness that is man's rightful inheritance, then it were better that they were blind.

It is sweet to feel the breeze upon the face. It is sweet to climb the hills and feel the warm blood coursing through the veins. But if the footsteps take you away from God, then better that you were lame, crippled from birth, for what is sown in carelessness must be reaped in time to come.

When the great Father and Mother God entreats you to make the full surrender He is requesting you to obey His most merciful laws – that these in themselves are a manifestation of unlimited love. When the Master calls, "Follow Me". Those bound by the earth will not respond for they believe that the road is too hard, they seek their comforts and their ease. But when the call comes to you know that the Christ is holding out to you powers and gifts, a joy and peace which the human mind at this stage cannot grasp.

Make the link firmer with those who love you so well; who are laughing and throwing out on the vibrations that which is as a chain of joy, each link representing something overcome, something relinquished. As a mighty chain so the sweetness of their joy is thrown out over everyone. They call upon you to rise, to respond, to put aside sorrow, to put aside sad memories and to be happy warriors, soldiers of the King of Kings, pilgrims, willing to take the hard road, pilgrims showing the way. Beat out the way so that others, weaker, will have direction and by the strength created shall rise out of that which holds and take the hill that leads to God.

There are those among you who can respond and those who in measure cannot respond. Do not cast these words aside for indeed great things are coming to pass. Those who are weak today, will be weaker still. Those who seek to be strong shall find to their amazement that a courage, a response and an initiative akin to spiritual equipment shall be their own.

So then, let the past be past. Let the future be constructive in the Christ sense. Build for the future and in the presence of those of old who gather around you, where the bright ones and the wise ones gather close to give their strength, make the great decision, the full surrender. The full surrender that is the surrender of the lesser so that you may take and hold the greater. Surrender the foolishness of physical life, of its toys, of its trumpery possessions and take the gifts of the Spirit, take the powers that God meant you to have.

You have weaknesses and you have strengths. The weakness can be torn out and strength will hold your mind and your heart. Your inclinations and your holy aspiration are also known. Through the Grace of God, one day, one time you will be perfect even as your Father in heaven is perfect, for you are a fragment of His Holy Self.

So gather together your resources. Make the full surrender of all that lies outside of your spiritual equipment so that the gifts and the powers, the peace and the joy shall be as a hedge of protection, not only for yourselves but also to pass on to others.

You are blessed. Today, when power is granted in so great a volume to release the bonded minds of the children of the earth, seize that which is your right, that which is your great and grand inheritance and give that which is yourself into the safe keeping of the One who loves you best.

You are blessed with the will to give up. You are blessed with the valiant heart and the understanding mind, in the name of the Christ our Saviour. You are blessed with the pilgrim spirit. In days to come there shall be some who shall look back upon these words and thank their God that out of the release of the Divine within, they sought the great surrender. You are blessed with understanding in the name of our Father and Mother God.

A cloud of rosy light rests upon you; the peace that is holiness; the glow that is effort, effort for the Christ and for our God and Holy Spirit is vouchsafed for the work that lies ahead.

Zodiac Prayer: Master, grant that the messengers Thou hast sent may be able to gather close to these Thy children and give them sight of that revelation which Thou hast promised. Teach them how to give themselves into Thy most tender care. Father we thank Thee. Grant that in time to come we may be better examples, brighter lights and that we manifest something nearer to Thy great Love. Amen

We offer our prayers in the name of Jesus, the Healer of all mankind

“O God, send down Thy Power – Thy Power, Thy Peace, Thy quieting influence – send down Thy Power so that Thy children, in faith, in hope, and in anticipation, may receive Thy Healing Power in abundance, each according to their need. Amen”

Healing Prayer

Loving Lord, our prayers go out to all who are listed here – that they may be restored to health – if it so be Thy Will. We pray for those who care for the sick and suffering, give them the love that they need in order to offer that love to others. We send healing prayers for the world at this difficult time and pray that all those in need – whatever that need might be – shall receive Thy healing in whatever capacity it is required. We especially pray for the children and the elderly, because they are the weakest and need our support and Your strength. Give us the strength and determination to go forth and help where we are able so that Thy love and truth can be seen to be in action throughout the world. May your Loving Light never fade from the hearts and minds of Thy children, strengthening the weak and supporting the strong in order that Thy power shall never fade from this world. Amen.

Vessel Divine

UNEQUAL OPPORTUNITY

Think about your vessel of clay which holds the Divine Spirit within. As you read your daily paper – about the one with fame, those who have gathered to themselves the admiration of others – it may seem to you that there is a great difference between these people and yourself. Maybe you think that if only you had half their opportunity, half their chances, what could you have achieved! Not having spent your material goods on yourself; you would have helped the poor; you would not have used your mind to bring you treasures – you would have devoted your energies to healing the sick, giving sight to the blind, cast out upon the conditions those ameliorations which would help humanity. There are many who argue thus within themselves and grieve because their opportunities are limited. They say that they could do so much more if only the circumstances were different.

There is so much to learn. Think of yourself, not only as a child of God, but as something which has to be returned to Him, cleansed, purified, recharged with power.

HUMAN RECEIVING STATIONS

Think of the earthly vessel, the physical tabernacle. There are those in the world who are desecrating the Holy Spirit that is within them

els of Grace

– men and women with beautiful bodies who soil the body because the Christ within is , as it were, strangled by self. Many vessels are not filled with the Waters of everlasting Life, but with the dirt of the earth!

There are those with the gift of music and the gift of song. Yet there are many who say “But I have neither of those gifts; where do I stand?” Do not be deceived by the outward. You say you have not the gift of music or gift of song – you are speaking in earthly terms alone. There is not one good thought that comes from your mind that does not contribute to the music of the spheres. There is not one desire to help a brother/sister that does not cast out upon God’s wide world a cadence, a rousing, uplifting, sweet sound. The time is coming when those who are filled with awe over that which they name the wireless, when such as these will have the intuition, the inward growing consciousness that the picking up of those vibrations is but an indication of a gigantic truth. Today you touch the surface alone. You are able to attune your instruments so that you pick up the music of the earth and the speech that is given out but there are many who shall find this true: That by the great sensitiveness of the instrument which they themselves represent, through the Divinity within them, they shall pick up those vibrations

Think – you who have had so much trouble; you who have said goodbye to the one you love the best:

When you sought to pray, when you tried to tear rebellion out of your mind, you were doing something greater than any scientist on earth today; you were setting up vibrations of harmony between yourself and the world of the planes of Spirit.

of music, of song and of speech from God's own Land.

HUMBLE PEOPLE WHO DO MORE THAN MANY SCIENTISTS

Strange it is to us that there are so many who are content with the things of the earth. Strange it is to us that there are so many who are held by earthly views, while all the while within them is God; within them is consciousness; within them is the Holy spirit which will lead them into all truth.

Think – you who have had so much trouble; you who have said goodbye to the one you love the best: When you sought to pray, when you tried to tear rebellion out of your mind, you were doing something greater than any scientist on earth today; you were setting up vibrations of harmony between yourself and the world of Spirit. By that which you were giving out, you were making it possible to bring nearer the breaking down of the barriers between the planes of Sense and the planes of Spirit. When you pass out you will find to your infinite joy that you can vibrate not only to those upon the earth, not only to those in the conditions in which you find yourself, but more than that: By your dedication, by your love, by your compassion, you shall be as a holy instrumental you shall pick up vibrations of sound and feeling from many, many worlds hidden from your consciousness now.

To those with humble hearts, with obedient wills: There lies before you greater achievement than anything the earth could produce; you are being trained by your sorrows, by your losses, by your hard labours, by your disappointments – you are being trained as instruments, not only to help those upon earth, but many in conditions which would seem strange to you now, but which are there in very truth.

Brothers and sisters, the best is craved for you. Know that your highest ambition can be realised. Those mighty hopes that surge through your being can throw off the restrictions of the earth – here and now in God's way, which is the only way that matters. You are greater than you can understand if you are a humble follower of the Master, Jesus the Christ.

HOW TO ACHIEVE GREATNESS

Brothers and sisters, the best is craved for you. Know that your highest ambition can be realised. Those mighty hopes that surge through your being can throw off the restrictions of the earth – here and now in God's way, which is the only way that matters. You are greater than you can understand if you are a humble follower of the Master, Jesus the Christ. But you are less than you can grasp if you only follow the dictates of the baser self. Those who have sacrificed, those who have banished the thought of material gain in order to glorify God: Indeed you are nearer to the Kingdom and the blessing is all around you.

Vessels of Divine Grace, how great an honour! Vessels of Divine Grace pouring out upon those around healing and light and beauty and peace and love. Is it not an ambition that should satisfy anyone who is most ambitious? Is it not a wonderful compensation, a full compensation for the hours of weakness, for the times of disappointment, for the wonderings and the waiting for answers to prayers!

To those who seek employment and seek in vain – know that it is all in the Divine Plan, if only you take it in the right way. In speaking thus of the Divine Plan there is great reservation. War was not meant to be: But those who are suffering now from the result of great conflict are compensated because for the most part they are innocent of that which took place. So to all who seek for employment and do not find it – know that there is work for you to do. You may respond that you need to earn – you will earn, but it shall be those wages paid by God.

Nothing is hidden and nothing is unknown.

GOD'S PROMISE AND HOW IT IS KEPT

To those who find the idle days so long, who are fighting to maintain their self-respect – all around there are the sorrowful, the sick, is it nothing to all who pass by? You may exclaim; “But I do not know what to do!” KNOW that God will guide you. The promise shall be kept that the man or woman who gives freely of his or her service to their brethren shall find in time

In the 'testing' stages they can glorify God; they can be shown as vessels of Grace, vessels of Divine Grace! Think of those disciples of old, their poverty, their persecution, their homelessness, think how they strove and refused to be daunted, think how the enemies were legion around them, yet they still remained true to their Christ.

that by the power created within their own soul, they shall attract to themselves that of the material which they must have for their existence. Think of those disciples of old, their poverty, their persecution, their homelessness, think how they strove and refused to be daunted, think how the enemies were legion around them, yet they still remained true to their Christ.

If they had failed – you, today, would have been barbarians, you would be lower than the animals. However, the light kindled from the fires of their own suffering, sufficient light was created to filter down through the generations. You can be light-bearers today because of them! All are equal in God's sight, all have the same sweet opportunities and privileges because they are His children. Those who are going through hardship – have you not heard the call! Can you be a light bearer? Can you, like the disciples, find within the endurance to hold fast to faith and duty until the gates of revelation are thrown wide open and you pass therein!

HOW OUR FAITH HAS THE POWER TO RELEASE PRISONERS

There are men and women ready for the great call – the call of discipleship; the call to rise above their circumstances, their restrictions, their troubles – who say “I have no fear”. With Christ and God my confidence is complete! These are the things which set into motion the music of the spheres!

There are those in planes darkened by self who perchance shall hear your vow; there are those so deformed by the sins of the past who perchance shall feel the balm which you have sent out upon the conditions- and suffer a little less because of that.

Men and women bound by the physical body have not yet attempted – so it seems to those who are free – to put into use their mighty forces, their mighty talents, their mighty privileges or their mighty opportunities. Within you is Divinity. By prayer, by hoping, by striving, by casting down dear, the channel between you and God is opened and freely can flow through you the Holy Spirit and all it means.

So on this fair day, greeting the

With Christ and God my confidence is complete! These are the things which set into motion the music of the spheres!

You are blessed with understanding and with a still deeper determination to put God's work first, second and third. As you put your vows into operation there shall be those around who will feel the grace that comes from you.

Spring, gathered together by sacrifice and love we take it as a symbol of our spiritual life and we know that the winter-time of doubt can be over for us and that the Spring-time of faith and fulfilment lies before us.

TUNING IN TO HEAR THE MUSIC OF THE SPHERES

You are blessed with understanding and with a still deeper determination to put God's work first, second and third. As you put your vows into operation there shall be those around who will feel the grace that comes from you. They will marvel at your strength, they will marvel at your patience and soon they too will be under your influence, shall be turned into vessels of Divine

Grace as well. So the world in time shall be purified. The beauty shall be cast on all sides. The power shall surge through the earth conditions and there shall be many who will say: "I can hear something sweeter than the earth could ever produce!" The music of Gods' Land shall be vouchsafed, the veil shall be rent in twain, the eyes shall be opened and there shall be men and women, piercing the shadows and seeing the wonderful provision God has made for each and everyone and the sting shall be taken out of death for evermore. Victory. Life and more life as time goes on and the vessels of Grace being used to prepare other vessels so that through them shall pour forth Grace as well – this is God's Holy plan.

There are those who are sick gathered in. There are those who have sick ones in their homes. Take the blessing, realise that God's love is yours. By the pains of today comes the strength for tomorrow by the sorrow today so the joy is sure in the time to come. Once man has explanation doubt is killed. He realises that he has been honoured by the troubles that have held him fast. He has emerged out of the child stage and is reaching maturity and his burdens are increased because his shoulders are so strong.

attainment and it lies open before you. Angels walk with you. Let the way be joyful. Let the way be swift for many feet! God shall give that which shall satisfy through and through as you seek to do His daily work.

MISS WINIFRED MOYES devoted her life to acting as the sole instrument for the inspired teachings of 'Zodiac' who in his earthly life was a teacher in the Temple of Jerusalem at the time of Jesus. He chose the name 'Zodiac' to lift men's thoughts from the earth to the heavens'. Zodiac delivered 1,475 addresses between 1924 and 1957 at meetings which often attracted thousands of people. The teachings continued to inspire those enquiring into the meaning and purpose of life, the function of the natural gifts of Healing and Spirit Communion, and the reassurance of the immortality of the Spirit. Zodiac named his great work 'The Christ Mission', and it is upon this that The Greater World is founded.

Preparation; Dedication; Commitment

Again we are reminded of the need for preparation, for dedication and for commitment and for the Will of God to be done on earth. But when the revelation comes to the seeking soul it opens a door to a wondrous way of life; a way of life that they could never have dreamed they could participate in. Yet, there it lies in front of them. The glory of God opened to them through their willingness to become a part of the Greater World that God has offered to them and they have had the courage to accept.

Again and again Zodiac tells us about the wonders that are available to us if only we are prepared to make that sacrifice of self and become a soldier in the Christ Army.

He talks about the strategy of warfare; of how one here and one there, with courage, with resource, a volunteer leaves the safe shelter to go and seek and to find. It is the same within the way of life of The Greater World – not only here upon the earth – but in all realms of consciousness throughout the universe.

Everything that is you – lives forever. If you do not fade away into nothingness, your measure of consciousness, your measure of love passes into the universal cosmic consciousness for the betterment or the detriment of all who are coming along after you.

How then can you say to God that you have nothing to give; nothing to offer; for you are giving and offering every moment of the day whether waking or sleeping; your consciousness is alive and functioning in many levels of existence that you may not know about until you have left the earth behind. Yet the work goes on.

If self prevails then the effort will be about how the universe fits around SELF; and how Self-Responsibility for Thought, Word and Deed will not enter your physical consciousness until you are able to open the door to the Christ consciousness and realise that you have become in touch with your soul. This is the 'Real You': Created by a loving Father who is just waiting to hear the words, 'Come in'. Thus the soul that was hungry can be fed with the manna from His Kingdom, which is free for everyone who is prepared to open the door.

Today, as in days of old, there are many so-called teachers who purport to be leading the children of God along a spiritual pathway. Because the pathway looks easy, has much material gain along the way, people are tempted to tread the path. Yet, when they come to the end of the path they find that there is no pot of gold that they were promised, or that they thought would be theirs – nor the crown of glory that they thought they had earned because of their effort.

Many are the tempters that will try and turn you away from the 'True Pathway'; away from the peace of mind and the love of the Father, Mother, God, Who yearns for your success in overcoming all the problems that cross your pathway.

Understanding the lessons that you are given is not always easy. However, there is always a reason and love behind all that occurs. After all – did you not choose your pathway? Did you not decide the lessons that you wished to learn along your journey through this earth life? Why then do you 'kick' against all that is given to you so freely for was it not of your own choosing? Are you not being given the opportunity to grow, spiritually, by a Father who loves you and wishes you to succeed.

Therefore, count your sorrows as successes that you have overcome and in gladness turn to the Christ and gain that consciousness, that powerful Holy Spirit, claiming your link by becoming a son or daughter of your loving Creator. In that way you make a Holy link, a strong link and your Greater Self - your True Self – will not shrink from the tests that you have in front of you. Neither will you succumb to the temptations of the material world that seeks to move

Are you not being given the opportunity to grow, spiritually, by a Father who loves you and wishes you to succeed.

The way of caution, the way of self-preservation, the way of sitting on the fence, is a way of half-knowledge, with feet placed in the footsteps carved by the suffering of others. Such as these, under the influence of the enemies of the Spiritual Way of Life, have not, themselves, cut one step up the steep mountainside towards the Kingdom of God you off your chosen pathway.

The forces of good and evil are in battle in the here and now. The warfare is being waged with an intensity and ferocity that is impossible to be portrayed in words. Great things must be worked through so that extra measure of spiritual power can be given upon the earth to turn defeat into victory for our Loving Father, God.

The way of caution, the way of self-preservation, the way of sitting on the fence, is a way of half-knowledge, with feet placed in the footsteps carved by the suffering of others. Such as these, under the influence of the enemies of the Spiritual Way of Life, have not, themselves, cut one step up the steep mountainside towards the Kingdom of God.

There were many who began the pathway, who when the hill became too steep, decided to sit down, believing that God would not wish them to suffer so. Many have turned away from God, believing Him to be a God of punishment, or a debt collector. Sadly, because of their actions and words many others have wandered from the pathway and lost the earliest opportunity to attain their own understanding of the way of life.

Self-Responsibility is all in all and one day self-realisation will unfold, will awaken and show what opportunities have been missed.

What are you prepared to do for God? Are you prepared to use your tools, the tools of the mind, tools of the hands, your earthly and spiritual possessions, like One who has gleaned wisdom, to consider what you are prepared to do for God!

You know what you are: A soul with great power and understanding and with the preparation that you are ready to make here and now, the Kingdom of God can be achieved so that you can continue your work when you leave this body behind.

The fight for truth, for wisdom, for understanding, for self-responsibility, continues throughout eternity and you will be required for an even greater responsibility and an even greater role within the Universal Greater World – when you leave this earth behind.

This earth needs you – not only in a material sense, for the way of the Greater World is a practical way – but to carry your knowledge and influence wherever you go. So then you will be able to open the door for others in order that they too can share in the Love of a Caring Father, who will bring them the gifts of compassion, of peace of mind, of knowledge of everlasting life. You are helping God to further His Divine purpose – to scatter the enemies of darkness and ignorance – because YOU will be a Messenger of the Light.

You who are willing to sacrifice self and endure the slings and arrows of life are bringing revelation in whatever condition you might find yourselves. Through your patience, through your love for God, unconscious though it may be, thousands of life-lines are thrown out into the dark regions and when one soul is drawn out of the pit of despond there is great rejoicing in Heaven.

You know what you are: A soul with great power and understanding and with the preparation that you are ready to make here and now, the Kingdom of God can be achieved so that you can continue your work when you leave this body behind.

Out of your love for God, out of your deep understanding of the real reason for The Greater World being here on the earth, you are implored not to turn from the steep path, the hardness of the road that leads to God. You are never alone.

As you climb out of the murky valley of 'Self' and the temptation for material gain you will begin to realise who and what you truly are. You are greater than you realise: You are more powerful than you realise: You have gifts that God has freely given you to use upon your journey as a protection for you and a benefit for others.

The Mind of the body is very powerful and erects many barriers that close the door to the glories of the mind of the Spirit. The 'I' says it cannot do such and such because – and the reason is always of the earth. The knowledge of Life After Death is not enough to pass you into the Kingdom of God. Self-knowledge and Self-responsibility are required in order that you will be able to comprehend the message that your loving Father has for you. The Universal Greater World will never die and it will be a thorn in the flesh of many who seek to destroy it and the Message of Light that it carries throughout all Realms. The Greater World will never cease. It was created in the World of Spirit by those who knew that one day there would be a deep need for such as you, who are prepared to sacrifice self and family, just as Jesus instructed, for the good of all mankind, those whom you do not know and those who will come after you. You are creating a place for them. You can make that life a little easier by your discernment of the spiritual aspects of life and by coming through the dark day into the Light of Knowledge and understanding.

This is your Role – as an individual – and as a part of the Great and Mighty Whole. But what of the Churches! They hold the responsibility of making the Message of God to His people made known on every level. To encourage those who seek to become workers for this wonderful ‘Way of Life’; to sustain and support those who are already working within the church to this end. To offer to the people the opportunity to learn the true message that Jesus came to earth to bring – the availability of the Kingdom of God in the Here and Now.

If there is weakness then the dark forces will find it and instead of peace of God that should be in His House, there will be strife and discord. The Church,, which was meant to be a Temple of Spiritual Power – will cease to be and the soul of the people will weep. This message cannot be spoken about too often or too much. It is all a part of the preparation that is necessary to become a worker within the Army of the Christ.

The Cross of the Christ is support and strength. Jesus, the Christ, our Saviour, gave everything that He had. He said, “All that I have is thine”. His Peace, His Love, His companionship and His Care and Concern. Only a part of this can be yours until you are willing to give complete surrender. Then turn to the Father and ask that He may blend your Will with His so that you cannot tell where one end and the other begins.

As a honed instrument you are ready for the power of Holy Spirit to be poured down through you, to refresh and calm and then to raise and inspire; and so it is that God’s will is done.

What an awakening, what a revelation, comes to those who open their hearts and minds to the message of God. Jesus, the Christ, showed the way and He left explicit directions, the Law of God is in action every moment of the day and it cannot be changed by anything that man can do.

There have been many, who in years gone by desired to live in the world in such a way as to minimize spiritual pollution. They were persecuted as you will never be persecuted. Still they remained firm to the end. They did their best to liberate, strengthen and purify the soul, both of themselves and others.

The Cross of the Christ is support and strength.

When the soul desires to be fed it seeks a way in which it can inspire the Spirit within to Quicken against all odds and alert the consciousness of the physical mind to LISTEN to what it has to say. The Soul is trapped in physical matter, the density of which varies from person to person. It has not forgotten its true nature, its reason for Being, or the information that it carries.

When the soul desires to be fed it seeks a way in which it can inspire the Spirit within to Quicken against all odds and alert the consciousness of the physical mind to LISTEN to what it has to say. The Soul is trapped in physical matter, the density of which varies from person to person. It has not forgotten its true nature, its reason for Being, or the information that it carries. But it has to find a way to communicate with the physical consciousness. In doing so it must not allow the Spirit Mind to be swayed by the delusions of grandeur, the Wiles of Temptation, the Feelings of Superiority – that assail a developing soul, because of the inadequacies of the physical Mind, its lack of strength of Will and the Self-Will that over-rides all else.

Salvation through faith alone is not enough. The Greater World offers Salvation through knowledge and by being able to put that knowledge into practice. Salvation from what? From ignorance, from Self and from the constant turning of the Wheel of Life.

In these days of gross materialism you will be tempted to follow an easier path, to give up on the steep hill climb and sit back and enjoy the entertainment that is available to you within many of the churches and on television. All of that is not the Spiritual Way of Life that God has planned for His beloved children. Make no mistake about it, you are greatly loved and when you open yourself to the Revelation that will surely come – if you desire it – then you will know the God within you and without you and in every other person, your brothers and sisters in all planes of Existence. As you touch the heart and soul of each one you realise how wonderfully kind God is to those whom He loves.

Do not be afraid to declare yourself a soldier in the army of the Christ. Nor to state that you are a worker for The Greater World. For you belong to a world unknown to so many, but one that this world cannot do without – even though it believes that it can. This Universal World of the Christ consciousness is available to all who are willing to change. Ready for that awesome revelation and strong enough to withstand the winds that blow against those who are seekers of God.

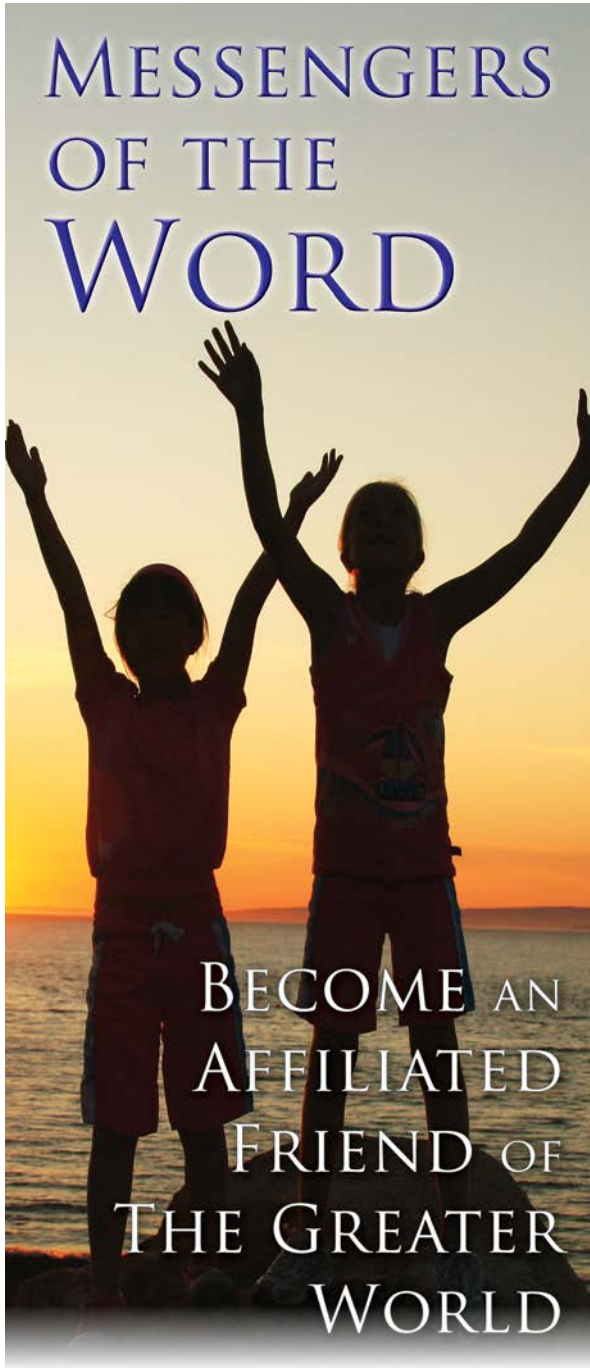

There was once a man who was very poor and he wrote a letter to Winifred Moyes telling her that he was very sorry that he had not send in his 6d membership fee because at that moment he had no money; but he would continue to work for The Greater World and send his fee as soon as possible. She wrote back to him saying; that it did not matter if he had no money so long as he was working for the Christ Mission he would always be a member of The Greater World. To this day – he is still working for The Greater World.

Never say that you do not belong to anything for want of money. You belong to an awesome group of people who are so strong in their knowledge and love of God that they are prepared to stand firm throughout all the difficulties of life. As one family, The Greater World stands – alongside one another; supporting and caring for one another: Those here upon earth and those in every realm of consciousness where the work of the Christ is carried on.

You are on earth for only a short period of time and when you leave you will go home. There you will see the work that has been done and realise that you are in truth a soul who for a short while had the use of a physical body so that the Will of God might be carried out for the benefit of mankind.

Go forward, unafraid, fearing nothing, for if God is for us – who can be against us?

The Messiah

The Christ is the only means by which we can know what God is like. Christ represents that accessible, understandable aspect of the Father that can be loved and whose example as Man, although representing an ideal, can be striven after. God is in everything and over everything and this fact brings a sense of separation between us – who are the fragments of life – and God, the source of all creation. The character and life of the Christ as shown during His earthly sojourn, may show up our limitations, but His loving kindness bridges the enormous gap between us and perfection. We are not like Him. But we long to be. We know that we have His assurance that through this desire, eventually, we shall indeed be as children of God, bearing likeness to our Heavenly Father.

Very largely, this awareness of the Divinity of Christ comes from an inner knowledge, a spiritual perception, that cannot be defined or described; In the same way as many other experiences which cannot be weighed or measured – they just exist.

“I beseech you therefore, by the mercies of God that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, by means of reasonable service.”

Through ‘Repentance’ a sinner becomes reunited in love to God. However, sin leaves consequences – for what you sow so shall you reap. The Cross of the Christ represented not a blood sacrifice but a love sacrifice. It must be remembered that although the physical body is capable of great suffering its sensitivity cannot be compared to the greater sensitiveness of the real self – the soul.

“Do not think of yourselves beyond what you ought to think. But think soberly, every man according to the measure of faith which God has distributed to him. For as we have many members in one body – and all members do not have the same function. So we being many are one body in Christ and everyone members one of another”

At His resurrection Jesus told His disciples; “Lo! I am with you always..... even unto the end of the world.”
