The Greater World Belief and Pledge

I believe in one God who is Love

I accept the Leadership of Jesus the Christ

I believe that God manifests through the illimitable power of Holy Spirit

I believe in the survival of the soul and its individuality after physical death

I believe in Communion with God, with His angelic ministers, and with souls functioning in conditions other than the earth life.

I believe that all forms of life created by God intermingle, are interdependent, and evolve until perfection is attained.

I believe in the perfect justice of the Divine laws governing all life.

I believe that sins committed can only be rectified by the sinner himself or herself, through the redemptive power of Jesus the Christ, by repentance and service to others.

The Pledge

I will at all times endeavour to be guided in my thoughts, words and deeds by the teaching and example of Jesus the Christ.

“Let your souls be sanctified by obedience to the truth and be filled with sincere love, so that you may love one another with pure and perfect hearts: Being born again, not of corruptible seed but of incorruptible, by the Word of God which lives and abides for ever. For all flesh is as grass and all its glory is as the flower of the field. The grass withers and the flower fades away: But the Word of the Lord endures for ever. This is the very Word which has been given to you.”

There are those who do not acknowledge God: there are those who have a vague idea as to who He is! There are those who have a relationship with Him on a variety of levels. Regardless as to the way in which mankind knows God – the fact is that He knows all mankind. He knows every thought, every idea, every intention and every word that is spoken – and those which are just thought and never spoken. Something which most people do not know is that every word spoken – or unspoken – whatever the quality of their character may be – they never cease to exist. How many times have you said or done something that you wish you had not!

Sometimes one person takes the time to sit quietly on their own and sometimes a group gather together regularly.
Even though they may not know the person they are praying for – their prayers are heard.*

Over past years the scientists, especially of the medical profession, have noted the effect of Healing Prayers on their patients. When they remark on the improvement the patient, or family members, tell openly how the person has received spiritual Healing. The comments, usually made with a smile – ‘well, I’m not sure about that. But whatever you are doing keep doing it’. A survey carried out over a period of time – the Rules for which were set out for privacy – researchers found that frequent private prayer, whether by ‘thought’ or ‘Hands On’ produced a significant benefit for a variety of complaints and diseases. A professor involved in the survey stated that spiritual Healing might be one of the most prevalent forms of care. Many pray for themselves. Others pray for everyone. Sometimes one person takes the time to sit quietly on their own and sometimes a group gather together regularly. Even though they may not know the person they are praying for – their prayers are heard. It also shows that people are still talking to God, even if sometimes it is only in a time of need.

There are many ways to pray and many reasons for prayer: On your knees; in church; at home; in bed before you go to sleep; out walking in the country; on the way to work.... etc. Asking for something to happen or be taken away; righting wrong; strengthening relationships; deciding courses of action; praying for peace.. the list goes on. Giving thanks in all humility, with gratitude and especially with love.

Prayers do not only go one way. God always answers prayer – He is after our Loving Father/Mother. As the proficiency in praying grows we find that His influence has brought about a change within us. We can walk more constantly with our Loving Father. The Bible is filled with people from all walks of life who walked and prayed with God every day. The power of prayer has no bounds.

“And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind be alert and always keep on praying for all the Lord’s people”.

The first prayer made by an individual was Abraham. He pleaded with God to save the city of Sodom. His prayer quite reveals clearly that it is possible to converse with God. It offers proof of what an individual can achieve in the outcome of conditions from worldly problems to family problems. Yes! You are tested. That is an essential part of your spiritual development. God cares about His creation. He wants the best for His children and He wants them to be as He would have them be. Your Loving Father always answers prayers, not only those of the people but also the Leaders throughout the nations wherever they may be or whatever standing in society they may attain.

they are worthy to receive. Every aspect of life is covered by the prayers of man. Does man always return an answer with a ‘thankyou’ in all circumstances. Prayer is as important in our life as the air we breathe. For there is never a time when we are not held in the Hand of our Loving Father.

The most powerful prayer is the ‘Lord’s Prayer’ which Jesus taught to His disciples. “Our Father Who art in heaven; Hallowed be Thy Name ...” We all know it – but do we understand it? (Matthew 6:5)

Prayer is not just made up of words. Neither is it repetition, nor does it require a beating of the breast, neither does it require objects. Prayer is the expression of a loving relationship with a loving Father. It grows in knowledge and spiritual understanding as the individual grows with age. Jesus taught His disciples that prayer is special because it enabled the soul of man to be swelled with the knowledge and love of the Father who created him. “Thy Will be done” It becomes a profession of God’s Will being actually done on earth as it is in heaven. At the same time it is a statement of praise and absolute trust. His character is one of absolute trust. His character is one of truth, honesty and love in every aspect of life. He is reliable, never too tired to listen to His children, deeply concerned about the character of each soul – and - He always has an answer – even if it is not the one wanted by the individual.

Our errors are always forgiven. However, there always has to be a sign of repentance – and of course, that very powerful word, forgiveness. If you do not forgive how can you be forgiven! Prayers are not just a long list of ‘things’ that you want to receive or to be done. Daily prayers should remind you that the Kingdom of God is all around you – within you and without.

Philippians 4: 6-7 “Do not worry over things; but always by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Jesus the Christ.”

Prayer is love in action just as much as a kind word or a helping hand, a smile or a hug and much more powerful than a handful of money. Prayers are just as powerful as action. Just because they are silent does not mean that they have no value; they are equally as powerful as those which are spoken out loud. They never fade away. This means that their content is always alive, always in action, moving throughout the universe, carrying out its purpose. Each one carries its own light and its own power.

In times of stress negative prayers are often sent out into the ethers. Very often the sender has no idea of the power of that prayer. They are hurting too much to realise what they are creating. These prayers too have their own power and their own destination. They also never die, never fade away. There will come a time when the sender will make reparation for their error. Realisation is a great eye opener.

In times of stress negative prayers are often sent out into the ethers. Very often the sender has no idea of the power of that prayer. They are hurting too much to realise what they are creating. These prayers too have their own power and their own destination.

It is surprising how much clarity of thought, learning is made and decisions are made through the power of prayer. Earthly parents, at the end of the day, question their children as to what kind of day they have had. Were there problems!

Jesus covered every aspect of prayer in His 'Sermon on the Mount'. Following His instructions on a daily basis not only brings people closer to God, more importantly it brings God closer to the people. His understanding slowly but firmly begins to become the understanding of the people. You are still responsible for you. Your Loving Father gave you Free Will. If you consider the knowledge you gain from your earthly parents throughout your life time which helps you to build standards and strategies; allowing you to see other people for what they truly are. Think about the knowledge and understanding you can gain from God through your daily prayers. Yes! It covers all of your earthly life. But what of your eternal life? You are going to live forever.

It is surprising how much clarity of thought, learning is made and decisions are made through the power of prayer. Earthly parents, at the end of the day, question their children as to what kind of day they have had. Were there problems! Things they did not understand! Bullies! Thieves! Any unpleasantness that questioning goes on into adulthood also. Families united for the betterment of all concerned. Parents know what it is like to be a child. They know what they learned – or wished that they had learned. They are the examples that the children follow. After all, we know that we chose this life for a purpose. Still there are so many who do not know what we know.

A loving Father/Mother God did the same for Adam and Eve in the garden of Eden. They walked together at eventide and as they walked their loving Father/Mother God taught them. They walked about in the beauty of their own home.

We know what happened to them. Now we are walking in God's presence; life by life; day by day; learning how to create the world that God wishes for all His children. Learning how to gain daily contact with our loving Father/Mother Creator who cares for us like no other can. Let us walk daily in His presence; recognising that there is a lot more to us than meets the eye. We are capable of great things – not only earthly things – but spiritual things and we know that they last forever. Prayer is the garden of peace where we can find our first great revelation. We are eternal.

God bless you in all of your endeavours

Zodiac Prayer

*Gracious Father, once more, counting ourselves as Your little children, we meet together in love and sympathy; knowing that love and sympathy is flowing to us from those in the bright realms.
Give us that spiritual sight which shall enable us to look forward and see in the future Thy Will be done on earth and joy and peace as man's possession.
Let it be our portion that in our different ways we may contribute to the coming of the Light of Revelation.
Grant that to our physical minds as well as our spiritual wills may be blended with You so that we may not only work but, literally create as we go.
Father of all, we thank You for the many good gifts bestowed upon Your children, for the power to discern spiritual things and for the ability to pass on that power of discernment to others.
Grant that within each one,
not only the sense of responsibility may rise up and conquer the physical mind, even though at times it seem reluctant, but also that they may bring joy in being used as messengers of You.

Teach us, O Christ, as to the simple things, for as we progress so we shall see that the simplest are the grandest and the greatest;
that the complexities of the physical mind in a measure block out the brightness and the beauty of Your promises and make barriers where no barriers exist.

Therefore, Father of Love, keep us simple, keep us humble, give us that resolution which indeed is of the Spirit itself.*

Amen

News from Headquarters

My goodness what a summer this has been! Just when you think that all is now going well – oooooops – along comes another testing time. You all know what is going on around the world and has gone on around the world since our last issue. It may seem to you that all your efforts are for nothing. But I can assure you that that is not the case. Every one of you who has made an effort to carry on as ‘normal’ during these last two years need to know that you have created a power that will never die. It matters not who you are – where you are – or what you are doing – every loving thought and every action taken has its own reward and its own particular result.

At headquarters we have made every effort to carry on as normal. Sadly, the business about the water leak at Chatham is still ongoing. Leeds Sanctuary is carrying on manfully during this difficult time. Well done to all who make life a little easier for those who come through the door. Sadly we had to say farewell to Cynthia Barnwell who was the President of the Luton Church and Messenger for The Greater World. Sadly, she is too unwell to carry on with the heavy duties that being a President of a Church can carry. She and her husband Colin looked after the church for many years; offering out the work of The Greater World in all its aspects to whomever came within its doors. Even their family was involved in caring for the church and keeping it in good condition. A big thank you to them also. Sadly they will be missed. However, we wish Cynthia a long and happy retirement – better health – and the ability to carry on with her work whenever possible. The church has been placed in the hands of an Estate Agency.

Question! Do you think it is going to be possible to hold the Christmas Service this year? What a question to ask in September! As each year has passed something has arisen which makes it impossible to hold Services or Workshops at Headquarters. Once again this year it is hoped that we will be able to hold a Service - however, we have to be prepared for every eventuality.

We received a lovely letter from the Trustees of the Maoni Orphanage thanking us for our donations. Like all of us they have suffered from Covid 19 and the weather and the dangers of people's antagonism while carrying out their mission. However, Brother Enock and his team of helpers, along with the children, carry on the good work within and outside of their own country. If anyone would like to join with us in supporting them please get in touch with headquarters. Many of our members send donations in throughout the year and every penny is sent on to the Orphanage.

I was asked the other day – 'if I join The Greater World what's in it for me?' (All answers in writing to headquarters please!) Every one of you could answer that question over and over again. Most important is that 'it is not what you get out, but what you put in!' Then of course, it all depends upon how much you are prepared to put in – in order to get anything out. What does The Greater World mean to you?

For all of you, wherever you are throughout the world, know that you are always in our prayers and that your prayers are joined together with ours for the benefit of this sad world. The need for God in the world is very important at this time. Do not be afraid to stand and deliver. You may think that you are alone – but you are never alone.

News from the Churches

Clarendon Road Sanctuary, Leeds

Loving blessings from all at The Greater World Leeds Sanctuary. We are enjoying being able to worship together on a Sunday afternoon and meet in the tea room for refreshments after each Service. However, there is still a need to be careful because Covid has not gone away; be aware to protect each other, especially those who are more vulnerable.

The Greater World family are doing what they can to help other people from home, sending loving thoughts and healing prayers to family, friends and into the problems in the wider world. The Distant Healing Group members are very active doing as much as they can.

When we read our bible we refresh the knowledge and understanding of the many different stories in the Old and New Testaments that give us hope and strength at this time to sustain us through all that we are experiencing. As we read of adversity and how people came to overcome problems, we learn that nothing lasts forever but life might be different. Remember that we are never alone and we have God's promise of the comforter, "I am with you always".

We held an Afternoon of Private sittings at the end of May which was well supported. Many visitors took the opportunity to meet up with friends and family in the tea room over a cup of tea or coffee, taking turns at the Tombola table and catching up with news.

We are having some lovely warm weather at present, despite the frequent showers, enjoying getting out and about to take part in summer activities, such as the Jubilee Celebrations, sporting events, County Shows, open garden fetes, galas and festivals, either in person or from the comfort of home via the media.

Enjoy these summer months and build up your strength, stamina, energy and resources for when we can return to a fuller life. "Keep on keeping on".

My grateful thanks to Revd. Paul Merryweather for all he is doing to keep the building safe; to Barry for looking after the outside spaces; to Helen for her constant support to me and to all who give love and time to keep the Sanctuary open.

Love and Healing Prayers are sent to you all

Keep safe and well.

A Prophecy Concerning Britain's Destiny

“There's a divinity that shapes our ends, rough hew them how we will”

Shakespeare

Many years ago, when Britain was once again going through a trying time a message was received from sources on the Higher side of Life. There have been many and varying sources of messages concerning the future of this nation, from as far back as the beginning of Biblical times and throughout all generations.

The message encourages you to think of this realm, this land which is physical and dwell upon the message that comes to you from a realm that is not physical at all. This message is for everyone in this small corner of a great world as well as all those who dwell beyond it. The prophecy concerns those who have Christianity granted to them. Not more in this island than at any other country in the world. The prophecy is so wide, so great in its import, that it is passed on, conscious of the solemnity of the moment, conscious of the great privilege of sharing it with a doubting world.

The Message: You will have the opportunity to lead the whole world back to the Feet of the Christ. To your country has been given the privilege and opportunity. The prophecy has rung through all the planes within the World of the Spirit – that it is God's Will. The power shall be given for the few to lead the way out of materialism into pure Spiritual Christianity. Revelation undreamt of by the heart and mind of man shall be made his own.

This message can only serve to emphasise the great importance of The Mission of Zodiac and the vital importance of The Greater World in the world today. There can be no doubt that as the few gather together God's Hand is guiding the way. This small island has a great destiny before it. There are many working at their best for the benefit of the population. Never be afraid to stand and declare that which is right. Knowing that God is for us – so who can be against us! What's that you say ! 'Thousands!' If God is with us who can be against us? Putting into practice every day that which stands for 'The Way of Life' of The Greater World can only lead up the stony hill and down into the deep valley – only to rise once again when all is right with the soul within.

Do not be afraid to stand; for you never stand alone. Shakespeare lived a long time ago. What could he possibly have to say to us today! Yet – that statement at the beginning carries and lifts hearts and minds beyond all that man can do to destroy a country – a world – created by God – with all its goodness and beauty – for man.

“Jesus selected from His disciples seventy others and sent them two by two before him to every place and city to which He was to go.

He said to them; ‘The harvest is great and the labourers are few; ask therefore the owner of the harvest to bring out labourers to his harvest. Go forth; behold, I send you as lambs among wolves. Do not carry purses nor bags nor shoes; and do not salute any man on the road. And to whatever house you enter, first say, Peace be to this house. And if a man of peace is there let your peace rest upon him; and if not, your peace will return to you. Remain in that house, eating and drinking of what they have; for a labourer is worthy of his wages. Do not keep moving from house to house.

Into whatever city you enter and they receive you, eat whatever they set before you. Heal those who are sick and say to them; ‘The Kingdom of God is come near to you.’

St. Luke

We offer our prayers in the name of Jesus, the Healer of all mankind

“O God, send down Thy Power – Thy Power, Thy Peace, Thy quieting influence – send down Thy Power so that Thy children, in faith, in hope, and in anticipation, may receive Thy Healing Power in abundance, each according to their need. Amen”

Healing Prayer

Loving Father of all mankind accept the prayer we offer for all who are sick and suffering in this world. Help those who are suffering in whatever circumstances, who are sick, who are bereaved to know that You are with them. Strengthen them in their time of trouble. Hold them in Your Hand so that they may be able to feel Your Love all around them and help them to know that they are not alone. Reinforce in us daily the need to swell your Love and Your Healing Power throughout the world for the benefit of all mankind. In the Name of Jesus the Christ, our Saviour Amen

The Birth of Spiritual Perception

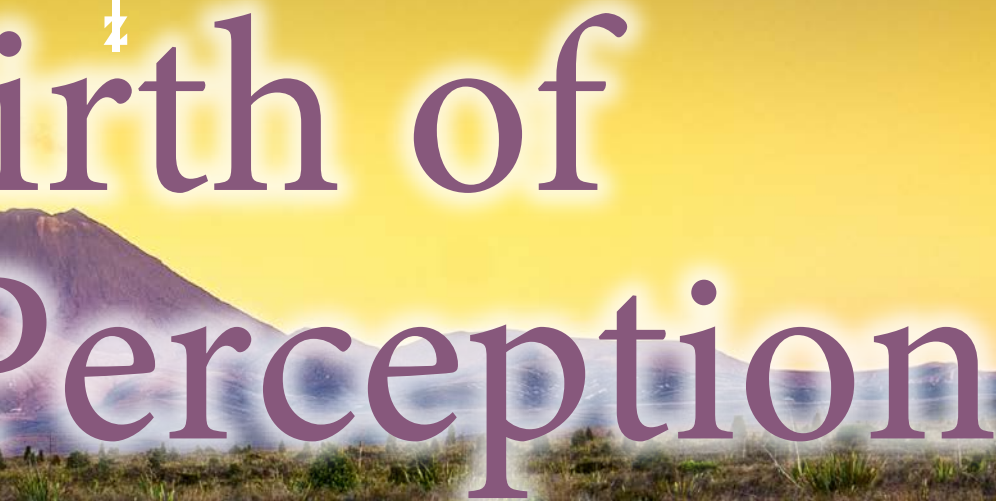

You have been drawn into the circle of power because Christ, the One Who oversees ALL things knows your need. This is a reminder that so long as life shall last you will never be alone again. Sometimes it seems to you that helpers from the Higher Side of Life draw back. Know that this is a sign of progress so far as the individual is concerned. There is much to be done while the flesh holds. So much preparation must be carried out for the wider life of spirit. A great work lies in front.

It may be that you would like a message for yourself. However this message will give you more understanding, an explanation of the daily lot, the common round; and your part is to go to others who are mystified by the trouble that seems all around them, to strengthen them and to do all you can to bring about the birth of spiritual perception in them as well.

GROWTH – THE PURPOSE OF EARTHLY LIFE

Never forget the long, long chain of service, stretching from the nether regions up to the Throne of Grace. You are all linked together; there is no separation in the Father's Heart regarding His many creations. Again and again comes the call from the One Who loves you best: 'Come up higher, so that I may reveal to you more of Myself!' The gatherings together are ordained specially to bring about growth, to cast aside your bondage, to cultivate the long vision whereby you may see beyond the hills of the earth into the Eternal City where the Sun of Love never sets.

Birth of Perception

In this way you will learn about the processes of growth; why it is that some who are influenced to put their hand upon the plough are influenced to take their hand from off the plough long before the furrow is finished – before the seeds can be placed within the furrow so that they may bring forth the Bread of Life.

Firstly, you must remember that in your physical makeup there are tendencies passed on from other generations. Remember that this birth into a certain environment is not a matter of chance – or of the

Will of God in opposition to the will of the soul itself. You choose your own environment because in that environment there are conditions which will aid your progress; which will act as lessons to curb the unruly will; to provide the planning proves so that when one stage has passed, good results may be shown in the stage to come.

MAN SETS HIS OWN FATE

You set your own fate. Once again it is underlined that those in your condition; those you meet who hold out their hand of friendship and then forget, all these are governed by a multitude of influences not understood by the mind of the body; otherwise they would be more on their guard. It is true that in the environment into which the babe is born there is provided there the discipline that the soul desires for its lesser self, but mark this: The Law of God is LOVE and discipline can be applied by the highest forces of good and not necessarily by the lower forces of bondage, as so often is the case.

While the emphasis is needed for discipline during this short but useful stage of progression, it must be underlined that the responsibility is resting upon those with warped minds, those dried – up hearts, who forget their duty to their neighbour; who find some strange satisfaction by striking the weak, by poisoning the affection of others.

You know that wherever you may be there is pain to bear that need not have occurred; there is unkindness for which there is no justification amongst the children of the Most High. It is not the poverty; it is not the going without that whips your soul; it is the wish of others to cause you pain; those who betray your trust; those who spurn the hand of friendship. While the emphasis is needed for discipline during this short but useful stage of progression, it must be underlined that the responsibility is resting upon those with warped minds, those dried – up hearts, who forget their duty to their neighbour; who find some strange satisfaction by striking the weak, by poisoning the affection of others.

UNSEEN BURDEN BEARERS

One great point must not be overlooked. You seem to regard your lives as bounded by those in the body: You do not recollect when you shiver under the lash that there are the bright ones; the loveable ones, standing by with arms around you seeking to ward off the worst of the blows.

If your eyes could witness what is going on, if you could see the ones who come to bind up your wounds, laying the balm of their sweet understanding over them so that you may soon forget; if only you could see what God has provided, you could smile at your enemies, you could pass through even an army of those who hate you, protected from the suffering by the knowledge of the power, the marvellous power, of the unseen who walk with you, sharing your burden – even taking so much of the burden so that if your eyes could be opened, it would seem that only one straw was left for you to hold.

Your thoughts pass from your own troubles out to those peoples who are being tortured in very truth, who feel that they stand on the edge of the precipice of utter annihilation,

One great point must not be overlooked. You seem to regard your lives as bounded by those in the body: You do not recollect when you shiver under the lash that there are the bright ones; the loveable ones, standing by with arms around you seeking to ward off the worst of the blows.

Think of the fate of those men and women who seem to stand at bay, fearing to look behind them; fearing the next blow which will fall! Be of good cheer; send out your strong thoughts for such as these.

helpless, completely unprotected, the young and the weak, the old and the frail. "Where are the angels?" Your cry goes out. They cluster close around. But because God has given man free will, bonded man must follow his own course until he falls into the pit of his own digging, there to writhe in a far greater agony than his victims could ever know.

What will be the wages of sin? What will be the wages of suffering? Clear the mists from your eyes, do not sorrow too deeply or too long for those who are struck; your compassion should go to the ones who strike; for in a very little while they will be tortured by the fires fed from their own hands and minds and hearts, burning so fiercely, yet never sufficiently strong enough to blot out the memory of all that they have worked in in the past.

SPIRITUAL BIRTHS HASTENED BY FIERCE TESTS

Think of the fate of those men and women who seem to stand at bay, fearing to look behind them; fearing the next blow which will fall! Be of good cheer; send out your strong thoughts for such as these. The birth of spiritual perception may bring its anguish but they shall be reborn into an understanding which shall never be taken from them throughout all time. There are men and women, ordinary men and women, those who would be counted among the mediocre, finding to their amazement that they possess a strength – the strength of the spirit – which they cannot associate with themselves. They are able to forget their own plight in the anguish they feel over the plight of their children or their loved ones. They are accomplishing deeds of valour that they could never have demonstrated before the great need arose. Why is it that men and women can be transformed in danger? Why is it that their frailty seems to have been thrown off like an old and shabby garment and that they have donned the garments of the Spirit?

WHY SOME PEOPLE ARE TRANSFORMED BY DANGER

When in great danger, when earthly things seem to fail, instinctively, because there is Divinity within man, there goes out a call to God. This enables His angels to penetrate the aura of that one concerned. The bright ones have waited, waited, waited, for the opportunity to come and they seize it and their own brightness and beauty are thrown over the earthly child – trembling limbs tremble no more. “The courage of desperation” you may call it. But it is not. It is the courage of co-operation – God's Will worked out amongst those so sore beset.

They are able to forget their own plight in the anguish they feel over the plight of their children or their loved ones. They are accomplishing deeds of valour that they could never have demonstrated before the great need arose. Why is it that men and women can be transformed in danger?

There is great turmoil upon the earth. War is against the Will of God. There are many deeds that man commits which go against the Will of God. What of the Father-heart when He watches masses of His beloved children flogged or tortured, yet innocent of guilt? Keep your vision clear. Do not allow your minds to be influenced by the subtle reasoning of those arraigned against the Christ. God strives for the release of the strength in man; God sends His strongest warriors to participate in those battles which are to protect the weak. Your part is clear.

Take fresh heart over the position of affairs and steel your will as news of tragedy reaches you from time to time. The birth of spiritual consciousness has been forced on and because it is as an abnormal birth, there are complications and a suffering never intended by our Father and Mother God. The wages of pain represent power in so many forms that you cannot understand at this time. The wages will be paid in full.

What of your own 'lot'? It may seem as if your troubles have dwindled. Sometimes they obscure the brightness of the sunshine of the smile of the Christ; but His is the work of the deceivers; it is only a test to see whether your will is firm; whether you are indeed a disciple; whether you can watch one hour – one hour – for the return of the Holy Master!

Never forget those words. To all who read that which has been written by the Power of the Christ – that if in your hour of temptation you did not slumber in the spirit the battle would be won. It is by allowing the dark thoughts to be inspected, to be turned hither and thither, to be pondered upon, the drinking of the cup of bitterness again and again, it is this that brings to much pain to souls who would be valiant; which delays the comfort the ministering angels are there to bring.

“Could you not watch one hour?” Why did the Master say that? Was it a selfish reproach? We know that where there is love that emotion is impossible. It was for their own sakes He argued with them, for He knew the time must come when He must leave them so far as His

“COULD YOU NOT WATCH ONE HOUR?” that is for humanity today and throughout all time to be. The Christ is pleasing with you to pass on this truth to others – that when the depression creeps close, when the rebellion fills the heart, remind them of the words of the suffering Christ gave to save them suffering; physical presence was concerned. Man has never appreciated the importance of that simple question: “COULD YOU NOT WATCH ONE HOUR?” that is for humanity today and throughout all time to be. The Christ is pleasing with you to pass on this truth to others – that when the depression creeps close, when the rebellion fills the heart, remind them of the words of the suffering Christ gave to save them suffering; “Could you not watch one hour?” As they pray and struggle with themselves; as they seek to throw off the influence of those around who are impinging upon their aura, perhaps at times the will weakens, the forces of darkness appear too strong.

THE EFFECT OF ONE HOUR OF RESISTANCE

ONE HOUR! That is all that the Master asks! There has never been a soul yet who has continued the conflict for one hour who has not won peace of heart and mind; but that is not all! What of the unseen conditions, the ones who have lost their way into the Light, the ones not ready for the birth of spiritual perception? They watch the struggle with amazement, they try again and again to overthrow the holy forces seeking to influence them. But as the prayers go up, as the sufferer strives to hold on, the will and the strength pass out of the attackers, weaker and weaker still they grow so far as the capacity to harm is concerned. But these signs of grace make a deep imprint upon the mind of the watchers; they would if they could – forget; but they cannot; something has been done, a tiny miracle has been wrought by the efforts of the struggling one not to betray the Christ without and the Christ within.

By these little means; by these simple ways, men and women have been won back out of bondage into freedom; out of darkness into the light. Think of the position of the struggler when he passes through the narrow gateway into Reality. There are those who are strangers to his remembrance, but they claim him as friend. Who are these who gather so close with words of warm welcome? They are the ones who watched. In watching they learned their first lesson of self-mastery; they are the ones who come forward and name him their rescuer and forever more in spirit they are his servants; for, all unconsciously, he served them first.

MASTERS AND MEN WHO BETRAY EACH OTHER

Now you come a little nearer as you approach the truth upon the earth. There are masters and men. In turn each is tempted to betray the other. The servant spurns the master; the master is unfaithful to the servant. It depends upon the earthly power as to who wins; but only so long as that particular condition remains. The secret of buying authority, that authority you must have in the World of Spirit to do God's work, the secret lies in serving; serving your neighbour upon the earth. Notice how the laws of God reverse the laws of the earth. Many a master serves his servant by being just and honourable and understanding; many a servant fails to serve his master by shirking, shelving his responsibilities. How plain it is! The wages of suffering once more lie before the earnest soul.

By these little means; by these simple ways, men and women have been won back out of bondage into freedom; out of darkness into the light. Think of the position of the struggler when he passes through the narrow gateway into Reality.

In the quiet calm the Power of the Holy spirit is all around. There are countless births, even as you have had countless lives in other worlds and still have countless lives in that great Eternity about which you know so little.

In the quiet calm the Power of the Holy spirit is all around. There are countless births, even as you have had countless lives in other worlds and still have countless lives in that great Eternity about which you know so little.

Think of it, day by day there are, as it were, the nurses and doctors waiting for another birth. A little longer vision, a little greater sympathy, a little more firmness over things which are right, a little more loyalty; sometimes pushing aside loyalty to those on earth in assuring loyalty to Christ. Can you not see that day by day the nurses and the doctors are waiting for another birth of spiritual perception for you, because they know that as these births take place there will come greater peace, a striving to sacrifice, a rising of joy, a throwing off of the things that hold back.

ABNORMAL BIRTHS AND THE WAGES OF SUFFERING

Make sure that you co-operate with those who watch! You must do your part. These processes of growth depend so much upon the one concerned. Sometimes a birth takes place and because there was a looking back, a false step, a tumble – that which has come to pass is deformed; it was meant to be beautiful and strong. The possessors weep. So much thrown away in the way of effort, so little more required to bring the creation as God intended; but they are forgot, they could not watch one hour for the return of their Lord.

Should this tone seem stern, then think again. Who is your true friend? The one who falters and deceives or the one who is willing to sacrifice personal affection so that there shall be a birth of spiritual perception? Love in the Higher Life goes so deep that no earthly words can ever express it. However, remember that it is not the love that takes; it is the love that desires to serve, to fight and struggle for you, so that when this short life is over you will look back and know that the transition has brought not only birth into another condition but an uprising, a greater freedom, a fuller power for the bringing about of the Divine Plan.

Should this tone seem stern, then think again. Who is your true friend? The one who falters and deceives or the one who is willing to sacrifice personal affection so that there shall be a birth of spiritual perception? Love in the Higher Life goes so deep that no earthly words can ever express it.

MORAL COURAGE REQUIRED FOR TRUE FRIENDSHIP

Be strong in this sense: Do not buy the love of others by withholding the word of warning in due season. The time will come when you will look back over the past and the friendship that you prized will not then be beautiful in your eyes. There will be some strange disease covering its brightness. You did not have the courage to put to test true love for another striving soul; you wanted to please; you wanted their kind looks, their eager welcome. That is human – yes! But never forget that you are Divine and you are here on earth to gain release from the human side in so far that is binds, to release your wings, so that when the cumbersome body is cast from you, you can soar. But you cannot soar until you have released the spiritual perception within you.

So many people on the earth prefer the valley paths; they want the world; they want the things that pander to the body. If they were placed in one of Gods' bright lands they would be lonely; out of their environment; longing to get back to people more familiar; to those bound as they still are bound.

Yet you are surrounded by an overwhelming love, an understanding of all your troubles, the many trials, the tests on patience, the feeling you are caged. However, you are reminded to watch in your time of temptation for one hour – one hour – when your Lord shall be felt again by your side and the struggle will be finished.

At the sacred gatherings those in the Higher Life have pledged themselves to put self on one side; to work for humanity; for the release of many who are strangers to the physical mind of those in the flesh. In the messages given you will find a gift of a flower for you, something sweet and comforting. It is your own! It is meant for you! Therefore give out your love and thank the Father that the bridge between the two worlds, built up by anguish over the past, shall never be broken down. The price has been paid and the wages are security for evermore.

As you gather up the threads, thinking over what has been said, coming to the realisation that all life is one, realising the marvellous opportunity provided by the Father to each one in equal measure to contribute golden threads to the great tapestry which represents the plan of Immortal Life.

WHEN THE PROP OF WORDS NO LONGER WILL BE NECESSARY

There will come a time when the words will not be spoken but will be given direct to each individual who is seeking the spirit within their soaring soul. Communication upon the earth is necessary. But by the birth of spiritual perception you will be able to stand, with no props at all, looking to the Christ with the perfect understanding that whatever you do, wherever you go, His Presence will guide and uphold you.

Another inch of the furrow has been opened. It is a long, long furrow and many seeds have been placed within, yet we must go on and on; not only through the physical state but through the life to come: Until at last, our work amongst those with whom we come into contact now has been accomplished. co-operated with God willingly we shall co-operate with Him again in creating new life. For heaven cannot be filled, so wide is its area, so overwhelming the Love which set it into being.

Hold fast to the thought of service with perfect joy and freedom, emancipated, freed from the past, loving your work, going on until at the Foot of the shining Cross the crown of service at last is made your own.

Peace be with you all. Holy communion with those who have passed into spirit conditions.

MISS WINIFRED MOYES devoted her life to acting as the sole instrument for the inspired teachings of 'Zodiac' who in his earthly life was a teacher in the Temple of Jerusalem at the time of Jesus. He chose the name 'Zodiac' to lift men's thoughts from the earth to the heavens'. Zodiac delivered 1,475 addresses between 1924 and 1957 at meetings which often attracted thousands of people. The teachings continued to inspire those enquiring into the meaning and purpose of life, the function of the natural gifts of Healing and Spirit Communion, and the reassurance of the immortality of the Spirit. Zodiac named his great work 'The Christ Mission', and it is upon this that The Greater World is founded.

The Joy of Spiritual Awareness

Every moment of the day and night we are given the opportunity of going through the motions of improving our spiritual growth. We have every opportunity to succeed in what we set out to do. Three levels of consciousness assist us at all times; one is unconsciousness – which is deep sleep; subconsciousness which is the dream state; self-consciousness – which is when we are wide awake. All are linked and intermingle. How conscious are we of our thoughts words and actions throughout the day? You learn to have faith in the knowledge that you have gained. It strengthens you daily. There are so many suffering in the world today. You carry so many apprehensions. You listen to what is going on and recognize the fear that lives in many a heart and mind. The body of flesh is weak compared with the bodies that await you on the Higher side of Life. There is a reason to fear what is going on in the world today, that which is brought about entirely by the exercise of free will on the part of the individual. You all know that there are the rebellious ones, who no longer value the work that has been put into their hands. They are wedded to material things. There are things of God and then there are material things. No man can serve two masters. Sadly, there are many people today trying to secure for themselves something which will definitely represent insecurity in that great Life of the Spirit that lies before them – for the whole of Eternity.

“No discipline at any time is expected to be a thing of joy, but of sorrow; but in the end it produces the fruits of peace and righteousness to those who are trained by it” Hebrews 12-11

Jesus set a standard of life that He knew would not be easy. He knew, however, that it would in fact provide us with a way of living that led over and beyond to vast benefits that cannot be imagined. He never said that the way would be easy – in fact he was always warning His disciples of all the tares that they would meet along the way. His message still stands for us today. The way was never meant to be easy. Over the years we know that lessons that are easily learned are soonest forgotten. The joy of learning the Christ Way is in the experiencing of His presence and actually carrying out the work – not seeking for praise or remuneration – just doing what is necessary and being as our loving Father would have us to be.

In order to have knowledge of this joy it is necessary to make choices. Our way of life changes. We have been given a responsibility – a great responsibility. We have to choose a way of life that, more often than not, is different from the norm. We have to make choices. We have to have rules to live by and we have to keep those rules at all times. Fortunately, all the rules are set out for us by Jesus in His teaching. You can call them rules if you wish or you can look at them in another way and see them as a ‘Way of Life’. Living this way of life may lead you along a road that is different to those who are around you and who choose their own path. This does not in any way take away your responsibilities to all life; whoever you are; wherever you are. One thing you cannot do is to run with the hare and hunt with the hounds. When you are living the life that Christ intended you become aware of the release from the negative and lower level thoughts that haunt and daunt the unbeliever. You learn that you have more than hope – for you have sure and certain knowledge of a living, loving heavenly Father, Who does indeed hold you in the palm of His hand. You learn about life everlasting and the fact that there is so much more to you than meets the eye. Every day of the life of Jesus teaches us a lesson in love, in caring, in wonder and we can look in awe at

His capability to deal with every situation that was placed before Him. It has also taught us that we could do the same. With effort, dedication and understanding we could also show others in this sad and needy world, by our example, a way of life that would bring them courage in their time of need and confirmation that they are indeed children of a loving Heavenly Father.

Think of the harvest that you can be responsible for reaping over the years as your example attracts others to want to do and be the same. They will want to do as you do and to be like you, in the same way that the disciples wanted to be like Jesus. Some will carry their chosen way of life until the end of their days upon the earth. Others will find it is not what they expected because there are always times when gratitude is not expressed. Some people need to feel that they have done something wonderful and seek the praise which gives them a boost. The greatest spiritual power is created when good deeds are done and no one knows who did them.

The Hand of God goes out to everyone. What is He offering? Power, wealth, kingship in its many forms! That may be one way of looking at it! Power has many forms. The way in which it is used will determine whether it is good or not. Almost everyone can recognise good or bad actions. The power that is available to those who follow the pathway of the Christ is beyond man's understanding in all its forms. That is because its foundation is 'LOVE' in all its forms. The harvest that it gathers is souls. The food that it offers is the knowledge and the love of God – our loving Father. A simple and beautiful way of life – it is when followed with both heart and mind. Jesus told us; 'Love one another as I have loved you.' How many people down through the ages have given their lives for the benefit of others? History provides the answer. The numbers are in millions. We do not have to go searching to find just one person – it is happening in many ways today.

Life is eternal. Why is it so hard for people to make the choice for a life in eternal light when what is being offered is free – up to a point! Life eternal is free, whether that is accepted or not. What is not realised is that the eternal life they will receive depends entirely upon the kind of life that they have lived on earth. The earth life is short compared with eternity.

The question so often asked is; 'Why does God allow it?' The sorrow of God is so much greater than that of man. He gave mankind Free Will. He made male and female equal. He will not take that gift away. His gift allows mankind to create of his own volition much that is great and beautiful and much that can be used to benefit people in all conditions of life. He will not take that gift of free will away. Each individual is responsible for the way in which they use that gift. Everyone is called to account.

The Loving Father turns no one away from His door. Jesus told us this when He said; 'If any one opens the door I will go in and sup with him'. That word 'sup' means a great deal. Everyone knows what happens in a time of famine – to be able to feed the people during a famine is a joy indeed. Jesus here is offering His food, His knowledge, His love and His way of life to someone who is starved of spiritual understanding. He is still doing that today. No one is ever turned away from God. It is then the opportunity and the responsibility of the knowing man to feed those who are starving.

Do not be a follower of Jesus by word alone. Fill the words with actions – as we say – 'walk the walk and talk the talk'. 'The joy of the Lord is your strength' Nehemiah 8:10. God did not make His powerful gifts available to us so that we could just talk about them.

We are the only ones who can, by our own choice walk with God. It is indeed life changing. When we accept our responsibility, follow His rules, accept our load – which may be heavy or light – we discipline ourselves on a daily basis. The choice is ours alone.

Are our prayers a cry for help in ignorance or are they sincere and positive? Are they for self alone? Sometimes the answer does not arrive as soon as the recipient would like – sometimes not in the way that they would like – but no prayer goes unanswered.

If you send out healing prayers the instant they are sent they are received by the recipient wherever they may be in the world. No sincere prayer lights ever go out or are lost in the darkness. The power of the prayer is dependent upon the sincerity and intention of the individual and the wonderful thing about them is that their light never goes out.

God has provided everyone with everything they need in order to live a good life. That good life does not necessarily mean material gain – power – or mental ability – every person is different and is born for a different reason – but each has a pathway to walk and deeds to fulfil that will benefit the world and those who dwell therein. Each person is born with a pathway to travel, how they travel is entirely up to them. They can carry out the reason why they came and fulfil their life's journey. Or they can make the choice to ignore the promise they made prior to their birth and do exactly as they want. Thus their reason for being may seem wasted – things might have been very different had they followed the set pathway, but nothing in God's world is ever wasted. Everyone around you has this decision to make. Everyone has a duty to perform. Not everyone will follow their set path. The soul of every person – both male and female – are equal in the sight of God and He knows what each person is capable of becoming. Everyone has to make a decision at some point in their life.

At this harvest time think of the farmer. Jesus spoke many times about seedtime and harvest, the fruits of the field, the birds in the air and the fish in the sea. Everything is combined for the benefit of man. How much does man appreciate them! The farmer has a big responsibility for he has to provide the means of feeding hundreds and thousands - even millions of people. He has the responsibility of ploughing the ground, sowing the seed, tending the crop through all seasons: Watering it when there is drought, making sure that the weeds do not strangle the growing shoots. Every day he walks around the field, waiting and watching. When it is time for the harvesting he is the person who sets the day, calls upon the workers and makes sure that all is done as it should be. His harvest is safe and under cover.

There is no time when the farmer can call upon someone else to make his decisions. No one but himself can decide when the harvesting should be carried out. At all times he is responsible. His success is seen in the amount that is collected and the quality of the harvest.

God has given every one of us a responsibility beyond our understanding. As we carry out our duties in a spiritual way day by day so we are walking closer and closer to God. We plant the seeds by our way of life. They may be only small, but the important thing is that they have been planted. If they grow – then that is the responsibility of the person in whom they were planted – they have free will. We may not see the benefit that the seeds may have upon that one life or what benefit that one person passes on to how many others! But, the seed has been sown. Not everything is made known to us about the life of anyone else – that does not matter. All that matters is that we pass on as many seeds as we are able wherever we are and whatever we are doing so that others may benefit and most importantly that everything is done in love.

With all the horrors that have been going on throughout the world in recent times it may seem impossible to remember the joy of life. We are living in a world that in general terms does not heed the teaching of Jesus. Yet, quietly going about their duties there are those who still follow the way; still give out the love; still remain strong in a world that does not want to know that there is a way of life open to them that is so much better than the negative aspects of life in which they dwell. Their names may never be known to the people – they will certainly be known to God. Their strength to carry on in time of trouble could be your strength; their joy of life could be your joy; knowing that all is well no matter what the circumstances.

In the world today we are in need of the love of God in action. It is our decision as to whether we take the easy road and live a self-centred life where only 'me', 'my' and 'mine' exists. It is our decision as to whether we follow in the footsteps of the Master and go about our work quietly and carefully, helping to bring about a world that is filled with light and love. The choice is ours. Will our Loving Father say to us 'well done thou good and faithful servant'?

Maoni Orphanage Update
